Wish to thank everyone who has sent me info on my Wright family on my Fathers line. They did intermarry with many Wrights, Mulnix and other families. Many of them were Ministers. Many in NC, VA, KY, IN, IL, IA, MO and few others.

I started doing genealogy in 1969 and all my grand parents were gone but had other members of their's could get info from. Otherwise I worked at the court house and library and cemeteries to find info that I could.

I with others spent many a week at the Ft. Wayne, IN library, Salt Lake City library, Madison, WI library and many hours at Columbia, MO library just about every year from when I started. There was 4 of us who went to Iowa City every month during the good weather but now one has moved, one has passed and the other can't get out any longer and no fun to go by your self. So decided it was time to stop. This was before the internet so didn't have that to rely on but was just as well as have found a lot of wrong info on the internet. (I can't say mine is all right either) As much of it was not able to be proven for sure so just had to go by what we could find. But if anyone has proof of what you find is wrong in any of my books I would appreciate knowing it. We know every one is not 100% right as no one is perfect, even in research. New Data June 2017-GLT

So hope these books will be appreciated and enjoyed as much as I had putting them together. But I think now is the time to turn them over to someone else to enjoy as I can't get to the libraries any longer and only the internet to rely on and that isn't as much fun as going to the places where your ancestor's walked themselves.

You will notice different address's but the one above is correct.

Notes HUSBAND - Amos Milton Wright (Elder) (Continued) with dates. Amos Wright, ELDER (Preacher). Copy of pic of double grave marker with Amos and Margaret and one pic of cemetery. Salem, Howard Twp, Washington Co. IN, Old Mill Creek Church of Christ cemetery. (said church on side of creek & cem on other side) A note: The info regarding Amos Wright and 2nd wife, Margaret on the adjacent headstone is wrong. (Only thing I see is Amos's birth dated on stone in 1763 which other sources listed.) Amos was the 7th of 8 sons born to Richard Wright Sr. and "Ann" (her surname is still unknown) But it is known and is Elizabeth Jane "Ann" Morgan. Here says Amos was born in 1762 possibly Orange Co. ND (which believe he was). His father acquired property in Orange Co., dated 3 Oct 1762 and again in Oct 1783 (So could be born in 1762 or 63 in Orange Co.) Otherwise Amos may have been born in what is now Patrick Co. VA?. Amos Wright married Elizabeth Lowe in 1782 in Rowan Co. NC. Day/month unknown. On his stone also says he was a Rev. War Veteran. It is known that Amos is in the 1790 census with 5 members in his family 2 adults and 3 children. Based on later findings the 3 children would be John 1785; Anna Patsy 1787; and Peter 1789. Amos became a preacher (often called an Elder) in the 1790's. He was about 28 years of age. based on a much later "bio" (that has been found to be a bit faulty, but not totally) source: "The Amos Wright Family was one of the first to settle here. By Helen Burgess 2-10-1972. Amos, Elizabeth and children lived in Powell's Valley Va for a few years before moving on to Wayne co. KY where Elizabeth died at the age of 41 (puts her death abt 1806- shortly after the birth of her last child Amos Jr. in 1805) Fall of 1807, Amos married Margaret "Peggy" Davis 22 Jan 1807, according to "Kentucky Marriages, 1802-1850". In the fall of that year, Amos and family, along with his brother Philbert (b. 1768) the entourage moved first to Clark's Grant in Indiana Territory with other relatives. They settled in what later became Washington Co. His son, Elder John Wright wrote in his obituary, "He was one of the meek of the earth and without an enemy in the world. He has finished his course on earth in the assurance of triumphant faith, having spent between 50 and 70 years in the house of God and more then 40 years of that time, he was a public teacher of Christianity and contended faithfully for the faith of the gospel. He has left behind five sons earnestly contending for the faith, with one grandson, Jacob Wright, now of Decatur, Indiana and one son in law, Nathan Buchanan, called a strong man in the gospel, now of Missouri" " It is noted here that - although wellmeaning- through additional research, some information was found to be incorrect." Elder John Wright wrote in the Christian Record published December 1846 that his father "Departed this life on the 14th Oct 1846, Amos Wright, Sr, of Washington County in the 84th year of his age" this would make Amos being born in 1762. No specific date was found but believe to be in late "1762" Amos Wright, at his death, had five sons, one son in law and one grandson who were preachers in the Church of Christ. Elder John Wright's Diary was penned between 1844-1850, in which he identifies his stepmother's death as "Then Saturday Night as B.S. -(Bluff Springs, Orange Co) and the fifth Lords Day at Jefferson School House on the funeral farewell of our step mother. This was truly a tender meeting." This would indicate Margaret Davis Wright's death on 29 Sep 1844. Amos listed children of first wife: Elder John Wright, 1785-1851; Anna Patsy 1787-1833; Elder Peter 1789-1852, Elder Levi 1792-1860, Elder Joshua 1795-1863, Richard 1798-1833, Rebecca 1801-1892, Elder Amos Jr. 1805-1880. 2nd wife's children: Elizabeth 1808-, Benjamin 1809-; Polly 1810-, Sally 1811-, Simeon 1815-, Jane 1817-. The cemetery was over the line in Howard Twp. across the creek from the church. In 1826 was located in Sec 34 Twp 2N, Rg 3E. In 1983 the Washington Co Cemetery Association placed there a marker as follows- "Mill Creek church of Christ Cemetery in Memory of Pioneer Preacher Amos Wright 1768=1846: Margaret Wright D. 1842. Rev. War Soldies: Wm Grace (1758-1824; Nicholas Porter 1763-1835 and others buried here erected by Washington Co Cemetery Ass'n, 1983. Which was established 142 years after Amos' death.

(all this from Amos Find A Grave site - copy)

Family group sheets from LDS library stated b. Rowan Co. d. Washington Co. IN. which is right.

Located records in Washington Co. IN. Also burial record in the Old Mill Creek cemetery which is near Salem, IN.

Info from Dale Walker on this line and Janet Pease who was descended from Amos & 1st wife. Janet said she had obit of Amos Sr. She also has copy of 2nd mg record from Wayne Co. IN but not first mg. Janet said obit of Amos stated birth date Mar 1763 and death date and place. Dale Walker said b. Jan 1764. I have done a lot of research on this line also.

2nd marriage was in Wayne Co. KY md by Elliott Jones with Sur: Frances Vickery.

Not sure how many children lived to maturity as some weren't located.

Janet Pease has tax list of 1785 NC. and 1802-3-4-6-8 of Wayne Co. KY with 200 acres (an additional 90 acres in 1806, no land in 1808) on Beaver Creek.

Janet said he was in War of 1812 in the Old Fort Hill. (IN Historical Bulletin, Aug 1924).

He was a Minister and Elder in the Old Blue River Church, located east of Becks Mill in 1809. In Pierce Twp. 1814.

Washington Co. IN History pg 565: Amos Wright one of early settlers in 1814. PG 577: Amos Wright came in 1809 and settled at a spring a short distance east of the Hill. One of the earliest Preachers of Independant Baptist. He NEVER preached a funeral.

1810 Wayne Co. KY census not located.

1820 Washington Co. IN: Amos Wright males--10/16-2 16/20-1 over 45-1 and females--to 10-3 16/26-1 26/45-1

1830 Washington Co. IN: Amos Wright males--60/70-1 females--10/15-1 10/15-2 15/20-1 40/50-1 (ages for females wrong so go back and check)

1840 Washington Co. IN (Waco didn't have census so haven't checked to date).

1850 both had died by then.

Janet Pease sites other sources: Genealogy of Richard Wright & Descendants (Salem, Indiana Library). John Wright - Rec of the Christian Church (in Nashville, Tenn). Pioneer Preachers of Indiana by Madison Evans. Indiana Historical Bulletin, Aug 1924.

History of Churches Washington Co. IN Vol P pg 7: Amos Wright Blue River Separate (Free Wills) Baptist in May 1810. Born NC. Also says John b. 1785 came to Clarks Grant in 1807 and his father Amos and brother Peter came later.

Wayne Co. KY Land Records I located at Salt Lake City LDS Library Dec 1991 and located two land records.

C-116 Amos Wright to Evan Wright (have copy under Evans Wright info)

C-460 Amos Wright to Jno Groce--3 Dec 1823 Amos Wright of Washington Co. IN appoints my true friend John Groce of Wayne Co. KY as my true and lawful attorney. Then something about heirs of John Croce dec'd. (name different). Signed by Amos Wright.

Dale Walker info has nothing on the children of Amos's 15 children. Some came from Janet Pease and some research I did on them.

WIFE - Elizabeth Lowe

*Find A Grave internet site listed her birth 1765 Rowan Co. NC and death 1806 Wayne Co. Ky, so presuming that she would have been buried in Wayne Co. KY. A picture of cemetery but the one in Washington Co. IN where husband and 2nd wife were buried. Spouse: Amos Wright 1762-3 - 1846.

Washington Co. IN History pg 583: In the summer of 1856 George Beck was in Salem talking over ol times with LEVI WRIGHT, both being abt 65 yrs old. Wright was boasting about still being much of a man and finally challenged Beck to a foot race from the public square down to the railroad station. Beck agreed to run, and each was to go barefoot. The bet was a dollar and the parties were to take any part of the street or sidewalk they liked. Judges were selected and stationed at both starting and ending points of race. Bob McKinney was to act as starter and stakeholder. All being in readiness the hat was dropped and away they went. Wright was quickest and took the lead and started down the east side of the street, while Beck took the center. As Wright got opposite a blacksmith shop that stood abt half way down the street he struck some sharp cinders that caused him to slacken his gait, and while he was trying to avoid the cinders he stumbled and fell. Before he could straighten himself out again Beck had taken the lead with his loping gait, which he kept up steadily and won by ten feet and got the stake, which was soon spent and the old

HUSBAND - Amos Milton Wright (Elder)

*Find A Grave internet site listed Birth yr 1762 and death 1846. (birth on stone says 1763).

Born in Orange Co. NC or Rowan Co. NC. (brother before him said b. Orange Co. NC). Parents: Richard Wright 1726-1785 and Ann d. 1795. (Ann was Elizabeth Jane "Ann" Morgan b.1728-1733)

Spouses: Elizabeth Lowe 1765-1806 and Margaret Davis d. 1842 Children listed 4 of 8 with dates and 7 siblings with dates. Amos Wright, ELDER (Preacher). Copy of pic of double grave marker with Amos and Margaret and one pic of cemetery. Salem, Howard Twp, Washington Co. IN, Old Mill Creek Church of Christ cemetery. (said church on side of creek & cem on other side)

A note: The info regarding Amos Wright and 2nd wife, Margaret on the adjacent headstone is wrong. (Only thing I see is Amos's birth dated on stone in 1763 which other sources listed.)

Amos was the 7th of 8 sons born to Richard Wright Sr. and "Ann" (her surname is still unknown) But it is known and is Elizabeth Jane "Ann" Morgan. Here says Amos was born in 1762 possibly Orange Co. ND (which believe he was). His father acquired property in Orange Co., dated 3 Oct 1762 and again in Oct 1783 (So could be born in 1762 or 63 in Orange Co.) Otherwise Amos may have been born in what is now Patrick Co. VA?.

Amos Wright married Elizabeth Lowe in 1782 in Rowan Co. NC. Day/month unknown. On his stone also says he was a Rev. War Veteran. It is known that Amos is in the 1790 census with 5 members in his family 2 adults and 3 children.

Family Group Record

Husband	Amos Milton Wright (Elder)
Wife	Margaret "Peggy" Davis
Notes	HUSBAND - Amos Milton Wright (Elder) (Continued) Based on later findings the 3 children would be John 1785; Anna Patsy 1787; and Peter 1789. Amos became a preacher (often called an Elder) in the 1790's. He was about 28 years of age. based on a much later "bio" (that has been found to be a bit faulty, but not totally) source: "The Amos Wright Family was one of the first to settle here. By Helen Burgess 2-10-1972. Amos, Elizabeth and children lived in Powell's Valley Va for a few years before moving on to Wayne co. KY where Elizabeth died at the age of 41 (puts her death abt 1806- shortly after the birth of her last child Amos Jr. in 1805) Fall of 1807, Amos married Margaret "Peggy" Davis 22 Jan 1807, according to "Kentucky Marriages, 1802-1850". In the fall of that year, Amos and family, along with his brother Philbert (b. 1768) the entourage moved first to Clark's Grant in Indiana Territory with other relatives. They settled in what later became Washington Co. His son, Elder John Wright wrote in his obituary, "He was one of the meek of the earth and without an enemy in the world. He has finished his course on earth in the assurance of triumphant faith, having spent between 50 and 70 years in the house of God and more then 40 years of that time, he was a public teacher of Christianity and contended faithfully for the faith of the gospel. He has left behind five sons earnestly contending for the faith, with one grandson, Jacob Wright, now of Decatur, Indiana and one son in law, Nathan Buchanan, called a strong man in the gospel, now of Missouri" " It is noted here that - although wellmeaning- through additional research, some information was found to be incorrect." Elder John Wright wrote in the Christian Record published December 1846 that his father "Departed this life on the 14th Oct 1846, Amos Wright, Sr, of Washington County in the 84th year of his age" this would make Amos being born in 1762. No specific date was found but believe to be in late "1762" Amos Wright, at his death, had five sons, one son in law and one grandson who were preachers in the Church of Christ. Elder John Wright's Diary was penned between 1844-1850, in which he identifies his stepmother's death as "Then Saturday Night as B.S. -(Bluff Springs, Orange Co) and the fifth Lords Day at Jefferson School House on the funeral farewell of our step mother. This was truly a tender meeting." This would indicate Margaret Davis Wright's death on 29 Sep 1844. Amos listed children of first wife: Elder John Wright, 1785-1851; Anna Patsy 1787-1833; Elder Peter 1789-1852, Elder Levi 1792-1860, Elder Joshua 1795-1863, Richard 1798-1833, Rebecca 1801-1892, Elder Amos Jr. 1805-1880. 2nd wife's children: Elizabeth 1808-, Benjamin 1809-; Polly 1810-, Sally 1811-, Simeon 1815-, Jane 1817-. The cemetery was over the line in Howard Twp. across the creek from the church. In 1826 was located in Sec 34 Twp 2N, Rg 3E. In 1983 the Washington Co Cemetery Association placed there a marker as follows- "Mill Creek church of Christ Cemetery in Memory of Pioneer Preacher Amos Wright 1768=1846: Margaret Wright D. 1842. Rev. War Soldies: Wm Grace (1758-1824; Nicholas Porter 1763-1835 and others buried here erected by Washington Co Cemetery Ass'n, 1983. Which was established 142 years after Amos' death. (all this from Amos Find A Grave site - copy) Family group sheets from LDS library stated b. Rowan Co. d. Washington Co. IN. which is right. Located records in Washington Co. IN. Also burial record in the Old Mill Creek cemetery which is near Salem, IN. Info from Dale Walker on this line and Janet Pease who was descended from Amos & 1st wife. Janet said she had obit of Amos Sr. She also has copy of 2nd mg record from Wayne Co. IN but not first mg. Janet said obit of Amos stated birth date Mar 1763 and death date and place. Dale Walker said b. Jan 1764. I have done a lot of research on this line also. 2nd marriage was in Wayne Co. KY md by Elliott Jones with Sur: Frances Vickery.

Amos Wright, ELDER [Preacher]

The information regarding Amos Wright and 2nd wife, Margaret, on the adjacent headstone is wrong.

Amos was the 7th of 8 sons born to Richard Wright, Sr. and 'Ann' [her surname is still unknown]. Amos was born in 1762 – possibly in Orange County, NC [depending on finding his definitive date of birth – which may be unlikely] – as his father acquired property in Orange County which is dated 3 Oct 1762 and again in Oct 1763. The family may or may not have been there a bit earlier. If so, Amos could have been born in what is now Patrick County, Virginia..

Amos Wright married Elizabeth Lowe in 1782 in Rowan County, NC. Specific day/month is unknown. What is known is that in Amos is in the 1790 [1st] census with 5 members in his family – 2 adults and 3 children. Based on later analysis and findings, the three children would be John, 1785; Anna Patsy, 1787; and Peter, 1789.

Amos became a preacher [often called an Elder] in the 1790's. He was about 28 years of age.

It is noted here that - although well-meaning - through additional research, some information was found to be incorrect.

Elder John Wright wrote in the Christian Record published December 1846 that his father "Departed this life on the 14th Oct 1846, Amos Wright, Sr. of Washington County in the 84th year of his age." This would make Amos being born in 1762. No specific date was found, but believed to be in late '62.

Amos Wright, at his death, had five sons, one son-in-law and one grandson, who were preachers in the Church of Christ.

Elder John Wright's Diary was penned between 1844-1850, in which he identifies his stepmother's death as "Then Saturday Night as B. S. - [Bluff Springs, Orange Co.] - and the fifth Lords Day at Jefferson School House on the funeral farewell of our step mother. This was truly a tender meeting."

This indicates Margaret Davis Wright's death on 29 Sep 1844.]

Amos Wright's two families are as follows:

First spouse and children:

Elizabeth Lowe -- 1765-1806

ELDER John Wright -- 1785-1851

Anna Patsy Wright -- 1787-1833

ELDER Peter Wright -- 1789-1852

The cemetery was over the line in Howard Twp. across the creek from the church. In 1826 was located in sec. 34,t2n, r3e.

In 1983 the Washington County Cemetery Association placed there a marker as follows -
"Mill Creek Church of Christ Cemetery in

CHAPTER XI.

CHURCHES AND RELIGIOUS HISTORY.

The first preachers in the county, like those in almost every new country, were almost contemporary with the first settlers. None of them were salaried, none were missionaries sent out into the wilderness by church organizations and societies in more densely populated parts of the country. They cultivated the soil for a living and when there was time to spare would visit from door to door through the different neighborhoods, get a few people together in a cabin and exhort them to repentance. The service consisted of a hymn, read out by the preacher and sung by all present, then prayer, a sermon and another hymn. The preacher usually had the only hymn book among the congregation, hence the necessity of reading two lines, singing them, reading two more and so on. The old familiar tunes were all of melancholy character, and sermons were delivered in a sing-song tone and the text followed very closely. Almost everyone who came into this new country had predilections upon religious subjects, and when a few kindred spirits gathered to locate together they soon formed a nucleus around which a church organization was afterward formed and a place of worship erected. The beginning of Christianity in this county was under many unfavorable circumstances, but here and there were a few energetic, God-fearing people who worked for the Master, not for reward in a pecuniary sense, but for the salvation of the people. For many years the work progressed slowly, there were many difficulties to overcome. In the outset they experienced much trouble with the Indians, and it was not an uncommon thing to see a family accompanying their families to church on Sunday with the bible in one hand and a gun in the other. And while the energies and forces of the county were being directed against Great Britain in the War of 1812, they were compelled to be on the watch continually or seek refuge in forts to escape the tomahawk and scalping knife.

THE FIRST CHURCH ORGANIZATION.

When peace and safety were once more restored and the Indians were driven further west, the pioneer ministers entered again with increased zeal into the work of establishing churches. A few had already obtained footing and were moving gradually on the road to success. One of the first church organized in the county, was called the "Blue River Separate (or Free-Will) Baptists," located about four miles south of Salem now stands, and some few years before the county seat was finished. The organization was perfected in May, 1810, and the master of the same was Elder John Wright. He was born in Rowan county, North Carolina, in 1785. He came to Clark's Grant in 1807. In 1808 and his wife were immersed in the Ohio river by William Summers, Kentucky. He found occasion to hear the gospel expounded a few times by Alexander Campbell, and at once decided to become a preacher. In January, 1810, he located in what was then Harrison, but now Washington county, some five miles below Royce's Lick, the then capital of this part of the country. His father and others came into the neighborhood in March and April, and in May they organized the church. This was the beginning of the "Church of Christ," or "Christians."

Having established a church at Blue River, Elder John Wright, assisted by his father, Amos Wright, and his brother, Peter, who were all good preachers, went out into different parts of the county and organized churches. They were called "Free-Will Baptists," "New Lights or Independent Baptists," and it was only a few years before they had ten church organizations formed into what was termed the Blue River Association. From the very first Elder John Wright was of the opinion that the Bible alone was the only infallible and sufficient rule of faith and practice. He was the first man in Indiana who took this position. He labored to destroy division and promote union among all the children of God. Though at first he tolerated the term Baptist, or whatever term a congregation chose for a name, he afterwards came to the conclusion that it would be better to wear some name authorized in scripture, to designate the entire body of his adherents. In 1819 he presented to the church at Blue River a resolution to this end. As individuals he was willing that they should be called "Friends," "Disciples" or "Christians," but as a body he preferred the "Church of Christ."

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

The resolution was adopted and the association has since been known as the "Church of Christ at Blue River." Most all the other congregations in the county adopted a similar resolution or styled themselves the "Christian Church." This church, through the efforts of the Wrights, took the the county and has ever maintained it. Elder Jacob Wright, a son of John Wright, was also a preacher in the county for years, and lived up to 1884. Another branch of the Free-Will Baptists was organized in about four miles northwest of Salem. The place was called Sluder's home. Henry Sluder and John Custer were the leading members of the church and the place was abandoned, and the house, a log structure, was allowed to rot down. At the present time there is a membership of about four thousand two hundred in the county, the largest church organization in the county. The church in Salem was organized in 1849, with Jacob Wright as pastor, and has always been in a flourishing condition. B. F. Taylor has charge of the church at the present time.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Of the Presbyterian churches of the county, Livonia stands first in the point of organization. In February, 1816, at the house of Alex McKinney, Sr., one mile south of where Livonia now stands, this church was organized by Rev. Samuel Shannon and consisted of thirteen members. It was first called Bethel, but soon after took the present name, Livonia, and erected a commodious house of hewn logs, the first, probably, built after the town was laid off. In April, 1818, Rev. William M. Martin was installed pastor by the presbytery of Louisville, which met there that year. In the relation of pastor he was retained there—with the exception of about six years, which he spent at Bloomington, for the purpose of educating his children—during a period of thirty-two years. He possessed the true missionary spirit and perhaps there was no man in the state who did more in laying the foundations of the church in all this new country than he.

Though making Livonia his home, pastor Martin went almost everywhere and few men ever had a more extensive acquaintance. There was hardly a Presbyterian church in a dozen counties around Washington at which he did not preach some time or other and if a neighborhood desired to organize a new church "Billy" Martin was always sent for and he seldom failed in his purpose. He delighted to preach in log cabins and was not a stickler for church rules in every instance, but adopted the shortest plans for doing the greatest good, whether they accorded with Presbyterian doctrine or not. He usually preached three discourses on the Sabbath and on communion days began the work with a sunrise prayer meeting. Seeing the need of thorough intellectual culture among the masses in order to make

Jacob, David and Ransom.

MINISTRY: Several references to Elder John Wright in Washington Co. IN. "Centeninal History of Washington Co. IN" pg 354-55, pg 803-4 & 925-26.

Pg 354-55: May 1810 Elder John came to Clarks Grant in 1807. Born in 1785 Rowan Co. NC, the son of Amos Wright. 1808 he and his wife immerced in Ohio River by William Summers of Ky. 1810 located in harrison Co. wut now that area is in Washington Co. 5 miles below Royces Lick. Father and others came Mar, Apr and may and organized the Church of Christ. He, his father and brother Peter all preachers went into parts of the county and organized churches.

Pg 803-4: John Wright one of Forters at Ft Hill and one of his children Elvira (actually Lavinia) born in fort 1813 and lived her entire life within site of the fort. She had 3 brothers and 1 sister, David, Ransom, Jacob and Nancy. Jacob preached the dedication sermon at Ft Hill on Oct 1, 1860.

Pg 925-26: John Wright was one of the most interesting of Pioneers who helped lay foundtions of community live in Washington Co. Came here 1810 and settled 4 miles south of Salem then moved to Bear Creek. 1810 Free Will Baptist established a church in his house and later donotated the ground for a church. Name changed to Church of Christ. Know known as Blue River Church. John 1st Preacher of the church and minister to 3000 souls. He was a Power in the community where his influence was evident long after he was gone.

Pg 653: 1st raod from Salem blazed out by John Wright 1814.

(Another book by Steiner & Wakefield, pub 1967 says this John died 1857 Chariton Co. MO.) Must have been another John.

CHILDREN: He had one child by 1st wife and at least 6 by 2nd wife.

1790 John would be age 5 prob. with parents in NC.

1800 John age 15 prob. with parents.

HUSBAND - Jacob Wright Elder

*Find A Grave internet site listed birth and death dates and states. Parents: John Wright 1785-1851 and Nancy Purlee 1792-1844. Spouse: Rachel T. Denny 1814-1864. Pic of Jacob Wright middle age probably. Signed at bottom "Yours in Christian love" Jacob Wright. He was also a Preacher. Pic of double grave marker with both names on it. and one of entrance to cemetery. (I had thought this use to be listed as Quaker cemetery as some of my Munden family were buried there and they were Quakers. (GLT). Listed 6 of 10 children and 2 siblings all with dates. From A family of pioneer preachers in IN, he was a cabinet maker who kept his Bible on his work bench. While resting he would read verses to reflect upon while working, thus gaining a thorough knowledge a through knowledge of the Scriptures. For more information on Jacob and his father john see Biographical Sketches of the pioneer Preachers of Indiana published in 1862. He and his wife had children.

BIRTH: Info from Janet Pease and census records, Washington Co. IN History. Jacob was listed in will of father as one of the executors 1884.

MARRIAGE: Marriage recorded Washington Co. IN to Sarah Sheets 1827 but by 1850 his wife was listed as Rachel F., also 1860 so maybe he was md twice? County history only listed 1.

DEATH: Info from Janet Pease. I have only done research on census & county history.

1810 would be with parents if listed.

1820 would be abt 9-10 and probably with parents in Washington Co. IN.

1830 Washington Co. IN Jacob Wright m- 20/30-1 f-20/30-1

1840 Washington Co. IN Jacob Wright m-to 5-2 30/40-1 f-20/30-1

Jacob Wright

Birth: Oct. 9, 1809
Indiana, USA
Death: Sep. 5, 1881
Indiana, USA

From a family of pioneer preachers in Indiana, he was a cabinet maker who kept his Bible on his work bench. While resting he would read verses to reflect upon while working, thus gaining a thorough knowledge of the Scriptures. For more information on Jacob and his father John see Biographical Sketches of the Pioneer Preachers of Indiana published in 1862. He and his wife had 10 children including those listed below.

Info from "Centennial History of Washington Co. IN" by Warden W. Steven pub. 1967, pg 924-25-26. Listing info on Josiah and his parents and his fathers parents and children of this Josiah and father and grandfather (have copy). This is very interesting. This family was of England to Scotch-Irish ancestry. Coming to settle in VA. was Jordan johnson, the father of the following sons, Josiah, Jesse, Jacob and Jordan. Interesting to record at this point that JACOB Johnson who immigrated to Tenn became the FATHER OF ANDREW JOHNSON, PRESIDENT OF UNITED STATES. Jesse went to Mississippi and Jordon was a large slaveowner, died in VA where he also owned vast possessions of land. Josiah is the member of the family who has the greatest part to play in the history of establinshing the faily in this section of the country, IN. It was said here baeore touching upon his endeavors in IN, he married Sally Wright of NC who was the daughter of Richard Wright of Welsh descent, native of England and the father of 8 children.

Josiah Johnson and his wife came to Clark's Grant where they lived for a year in 1808 in company with two brothers in law, James Allen and Noah Fouts he entered a homestead claim on the land southwest of Salem which is now the farm of Walter Colglazier. Josiah followed the occupation of a farmer and lived until 1813, hius wife lived to an advanced age, died in Vigo Co where she had gone with her second husband. (copy)

Md Maria A. Denny and had 11 children.

Mr. Colglazier is a man who owing to his ability has been elected to a number of offices of public trust. For five years he held the office of township assessor and for a time served as road supervisor. In his political interests he is a member of the Progressive party and at the present time holds the office of church trustee. On account of his sterling attributes of character he has won a place of high esteem in the county in which he was born. Mr. and Mrs. Colglazier have been life-long members of the Ft. Hill Church of Christ, for the growth and welfare of its congregation their parents made noble sacrifices.

JOSIAH T. JOHNSON.

Josiah Tillison Johnson is a native of Washington county, having been born in Jackson (now Howard) township, on the 5th of November, 1828. He is the son of Jordan Johnson and Levina (Wright) Johnson whose genealogical history is interesting from the prominence gained by the members of the Johnson family in this country. The Johnson family traces its lineage back to England to Scotch-Irish ancestry. The founder of the American branch of the family who came to this country and settled in Virginia was Jordan Johnson, the father of the following sons, Josiah, Jesse, Jacob and Jordan. It is interesting to record at this point that Jacob Johnson, who immigrated to Tennessee, became the father of Andrew Johnson President of the United States. Jesse went to Mississippi and Jordan, who was a large slaveholder, died in Virginia, where he also owned vast possessions of land. Josiah Johnson is the member of the family who has the greatest part to play in the history of establishing the family in this section of the country. It might be said before touching upon his endeavors in Indiana that he married Sally Wright of North Carolina, who was the daughter of Richard Wright (of Welsh descent), native of England and the parent of eight children.

Josiah Johnson and his wife came to Clark's Grant where they lived for a year. In 1808, in company with two brothers-in-law, James Allen and Noah Fouts, he entered a homestead claim on the land southwest of Salem which is now the farm of Walter Colglazier. Josiah Johnson followed the occupation of a farmer and lived until 1813, his wife, who lived to an advanced age, died in Vigo county where she had gone with her second husband.

Josiah Johnson was the father of the following children: Richard, Ransom, Wiley, Jordan, Josiah, Henry, Isaiah, Nancy and Clarissa. Jordan Johnson, whose life has a direct bearing upon the subject of this sketch, married Levina Wright, of whom the following information can be given. She was born in the old block house that stood on Fort Hill in 1813, and was the daughter of John and Nancy (Purlee) Wright, the former of whom was born in Rowan county, South Carolina, a son of Amos and Elizabeth (Low) Wright. After the death of his first wife, Peggy Wolfscale, who left a daughter, Elizabeth, John Wright married Nancy Purlee who has just been mentioned as the mother of Levina Johnson.

John Wright was one of the most interesting of the pioneers who helped lay the foundations of community life in Washington county. He came here in 1810 and settled four miles south of Salem on the Press Hinds place. After selling this farm he moved two miles south of Salem where he lived until taking up his home on Bear creek. In 1810 the Free Will Baptists established a church in his house and later Mr. Wright donated the ground for the church whose name was soon changed to the Church of Christ and which is at the present time known as the Blue River church, four miles southeast of Salem. John Wright was the first preacher of the church and with the assistance of Adam Kearns, ministered to three thousand souls. He was a power in the community where his influence was evident long after he had passed away.

Jordan Johnson, the father of the subject of this sketch, began his life as a farmer on a farm four and one-half miles from Salem on the Beck's Mill road. He lived on this place until his death which occurred on February 22, 1874. His wife, who passed away on the 22nd of September, 1884, became the mother of four children, one of whom died in infancy. The other children were, Josiah, the subject of this sketch; Nancy and Rebecca.

Josiah T. Johnson followed the occupation of a farmer for sixty-eight years until the time when he went to live with his children. He married Maria A. Denny, the daughter of Thomas Goff and Jane (Hobbs) Denny, and a native of Washington county. Thomas Denny, who was the son of Samuel and Dorothy (Goff) Denny, came to this county in the early pioneer days and put up a log cabin where the Odin Parker farm is now. In those days the pioneers had no method of cutting the lumber except with a whip-saw. To Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Johnson, the following children were born: Sarah Dorothy, who married R. Benton Colglazier; Harry B., deceased, who was survived by his wife and three children: Jacob, who died of tetanus at the age of nineteen; Morton, who is in California; Walter, who is teach-Bedford, Indiana; Robert B., the subject of this sketch; Albert M., resides in Washington township; Maria H. (Mrs. Sherwood) is now living in Nebraska; Martha, who married a Mr. Moss, resides in Salem; Mary, the wife of a Mr. Purlee, is a resident of Orleans, Indiana; Melissa C., makes her home with the subject of this sketch; David D., is living in Hutchinson, Kansas, and Laura, who married a Mr. Williams, is a resident of Polk township, in this county. Five years after the death of his first wife, Mr. Colglazier married Lucy Roby, a native of this county, and the daughter of Leonard and Elizabeth Roby. After the death of his wife, who passed away on the 10th of January, 1904, Mr. Colglazier made his home with his youngest daughter, Laura, until his death, which occurred in 1908. George Colglazier was an active member of the Republican party.

Robert B. Colglazier has spent most of his life following the occupation of a farmer, with the exception of three years which were spent in Nebraska with relatives and a year in Howard township which was spent in teaching school. He came to the farm which he now occupies in 1880, when the farm which now extends over one hundred and ninety acres contained only forty acres of land. Aside from the interests of general farming he has given special attention to stock raising and trading and buying and selling many head of cattle each year. His farm is one of the most up-to-date in the community and the dairy which is known as "Edge Wood" is well advertised through the purity of its products. Mr. Colglazier, owing to his wide experience in stock rearing is looked upon as an authority on questions pertaining to that branch of farming.

On the 27th of August, 1876, occurred the marriage of Robert B. Colglazier to Sarah D. Johnson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah T. Johnson, of whom an account is given on another page of this volume. The children born to Mr. and Mrs. Colglazier are Otis, who was born in 1877, and who married Estella May Graves, the daughter of William and Alice (Motsinger) Graves, and who was born in 1882. Mrs. Otis Colglazier passed away on the 13th of January, 1907, leaving besides her husband, two children, Zola, who died when seven months old and Helen May. By his second wife, Alma Little, of Bedford, Indiana, whom he married on the 30th of March, 1910, Otis Colglazier has two children, Mary Lucile and Dorothy Lorene. He resides near Phoenix, Arizona, where he follows the occupation of a farmer. Maud, the second child born to Robert Colglazier, conducts a millinery store in Livonia, Washington county, Indiana. Winn Waldo is a farmer living on the Colglazier farm and Grace also resides at home.

ROBERT BENTON COLGLAZIER.

Prominent in the agricultural affairs of Washington county and a member of one of the oldest families of Indiana is Robert Benton Colglazier, a native of Pierce township, this county, who was born on the 29th of July, 1848, the son of George and Melvina (Britt) Colglazier. Of the father of the subject of this sketch it might be stated that he spent his entire life as a farmer, and until he reached the age of eighty-eight years, when his death occurred, he was active in his duties of farm life.

George Colglazier was born on the 15th of July, 1819, on Mill creek in Washington township, of this county. He came to Pierce township to take up his residence when the subject of this sketch was a year old, and began farming on eighty acres of ground. He was a pioneer in every sense of the word, and met the obstacles of early life in this section of the state with a courage that was undaunted by failure and disappointment. For half a century he was a member of the Ft. Hill Church of Christ and contributed generously to its welfare. Mr. Colglazier was married in 1842 to Melvina Britt, the daughter of Nelson and Hulda (Hudleson) Britt, both of whom were natives of Virginia. Melvina A. Britt was born in Howard township of this county and passed away on the 20th of November, 1866. Her parents, who came to Washington county from their native state, entered a claim on the land north of Beck's Mill, in Howard township, where they lived to advanced age, her father having followed the occupation of a farmer during his entire life. To Mr. and Mrs. Colglazier the following children were born: John N., who resides in Nebraska; William H., resides near ing school in Chicago; Thomas, who disappeared in Kansas, is believed to have been drowned in the flood of that state; Levina Jane is the wife of Alonzo Roberts; Nora Odell became the wife of S. H. Hall, and Alberta, who married G. O. Child, resides in Campbellsburg. Two children, a boy and a girl, died in infancy.

THOMAS B. TRUEBLOOD.

Thomas B. Trueblood, well-known farmer and prominent citizen of Washington township, Washington county, Indiana, was born in Washington township, on March 24, 1877, the son of Joshua G. and Elizabeth (Baynes) Trueblood, natives of Washington county, Indiana, and Delaware county, Pennsylvania, respectively.

Joshua G. Trueblood was born on March 25, 1839, the son of Nathan and Mary Darby (Hollowell) Trueblood, the former of whom was the son of Joshua Trueblood. Nathan Trueblood came to Washington township when he was thirteen years of age, with his parents, and after his school days he engaged in farming on the home farm, which was homesteaded near the town of Canton, for some time, and then was married to Mary Darby Hollowell, who was the daughter of Thomas and Mary Hollowell. After his marriage, Nathan Trueblood homesteaded a farm in Washington township, a place which he cultivated for the remainder of his days.

Joshua G. Trueblood, father of the subject of this sketch, was born on the old Trueblood homestead, in Washington township, near where he was educated, and after which time he engaged in farming for some time, and then Joshua G. Trueblood enlisted with the Fifty-third Regiment, Indiana Volunteer Infantry, for service in the Civil War, Mr. Trueblood serving as a part of the army of General Sherman for three years and eight months, after this time receiving his honorable discharge, as a result of the close of the war.

Following his return from war service, Joshua G. Trueblood was married, on September 19, 1866, to Elizabeth P. Baynes, the daughter of Beezon and Lowry (Humphreys) Baynes, a sketch of whose lives is presented elsewhere in this volume. To the marriage of Joshua G. and Elizabeth Trueblood were born the following children, Lowry, Mary, Elwood, Lewis (deceased), Oliver, Thomas, Walter and William.

Joshua G. Trueblood, after his marriage, secured a farm of eight acres south of Hitchcock, a place which he improved and where he lived as born, Ralph Joel, who married Harriet McKnight, daughter of Newton and Anna McKnight, and lives on the farm adjoining that of his parents, and Martha E., Noble H. and Mabel T. Mr. and Mrs. Parker are members of the Blue River Friends church, of which Mr. Parker is one of the overseers, and they are held in high regard throughout their neighborhood, their invariable interest in all good works thereabout giving them a high place in the esteem of their many friends. Mr. Parker is a Republican and takes a good citizen's interest in politics, but has never been particularly active in the workings of the party organization and has never been an aspirant for office. He is an excellent farmer and a good judge of farm-land values, being regarded as one of the substantial men of the county.

GEORGE M. JOHNSON.

George M. Johnson, one of the leading business men of Pekin, Washington county, Indiana, is a native of that town, born on January 17, 1849, son of Nelson and Sarah (Souder) Johnson. Nelson Johnson was a son of Ransom Johnson, and he, in turn, was a son of Josiah and Sally (Wright) Johnson, who were among the earliest pioneers of this section, coming here in 1808 and locating southwest of where Salem now is. The Johnson family history, therefore, is closely connected with the history of Washington county and is set out in the sketch of the life of Josiah T. Johnson, found elsewhere in this volume.

Nelson Johnson gave the active years of his life to farming, being located just north of Pekin, on the grade road. He was one of the older school teachers of this section, being engaged in that calling for many years and continuing therein until after fifty years of age. For twenty-four years he was justice of the peace and was a man widely known and respected. Sarah Souder, his wife, was also born near Pekin, daughter of Joseph and Catherine (Tash) Souder. Joseph Souder was a son of Fred and Mary (Kesner) Souder, and the latter's father, Solomon Kesner, came to this country from Germany. Fred Souder and his wife came to this section from Tennessee in 1816 and located first where the town of Pekin now stands. The next year they entered land about a mile and a half north of their original location and made their permanent home there. Fred Souder died there on November 18, 1844, and his widow afterwards went to Illinois, where she closed her life.

George M. Johnson was one of a family of four children, namely: Ransom, living in Pekin; Mary J., wife of P. J. Purlee, residing north of Pekin, and Adelia, widow of William Baker, of Fountain county, this state. George M. is the second child of the family in order of birth, and lived on the homestead north of Pekin until married. During his boyhood days he attended the grade and high schools of Pekin and assisted his father in the work of the farm. After marriage, he bought a stock of general merchandise in Pekin Station, which he continued to run for seven years. He then moved his store to Old Pekin and continued in that business until about 1910. For about thirty-five years he operated the business himself, and then disposed of it to his son, Charles C., and since has been giving his attention to the retail automobile business.

In 1913 Mr. Johnson became connected with the Pekin Hardwood Lumber Company, in the capacity of president. That company operates a large saw- and band-mill, doing a large business. Mr. Johnson is also connected with the Borden State Bank, in the capacity of vice-president and director, and he is also a stockholder and director in the Citizens Bank of Pekin. Mr. Johnson is a public-spirited man and gives his support to the Democratic party. In 1908 he was elected county commissioner and re-elected to succeed himself, occupying the office for six years, up to the close of 1913.

In 1873 Mr. Johnson was united in marriage with Sarah A. Elrod, born in Polk township, a daughter of Cornelius and Mahala (Rickard) Elrod, the former a son of Stephen and Elizabeth Wyman Elrod. Stephen was a native of North Carolina and came to this section about the year 1815. He entered land from the government in Jackson township, but within a few years went to Polk township, where his wife owned a half section. Stephen prospered in his farming and gradually added other acres to his wife's original holdings, until he was a considerable landowner. His wife was Elizabeth Wyman, daughter of Frederick Wyman, who was a native of Hesse, Germany, and reached this country during the war with England in 1812. The English brought over a number of Hessian soldiers to aid their cause, and inasmuch as young Wyman did not relish the task before him, he escaped from the British and wandered into Tennessee. There he remained for a short time, and then came to this county, where he made his permanent home. He was a sturdy man in every respect and possessed the fine physique for which many Hessians were noted. This characteristic he passed on to his sons, and it can still be distinguished in several of his descendants today. All of his sons weighed over two hundred pounds and were an excellent set of men, becoming some of the leading citizens of this section.

To George M. Johnson and wife have been born three children, of whom Alfred N. is the eldest, born on January 22, 1874, and his early days were passed in assisting his father in his store. He remained in that connection until 1911, when he purchased the largest business block in Pekin, having a floor space of sixty-four hundred square feet, and installed therein a full line of hardware, implements, wagons, buggies, etc. On October 13, 1895, Alfred married Bertha E., daughter of David and Julia S. (Lapping) Bierly, and to them have been born two sons, Edward B., aged eighteen years, and Frank L., eleven years old. Charles C., the second son, was born near Pekin and grew up at work about the store, being also employed some about the saw- and grist-mill in the town. For a time he assisted Alfred in the store, and in 1915 Charles C. became sole owner of the store, still located at Old Pekin. Charles C. married Elva Martin. Delia F., the youngest of the Johnson family, is the wife of Thomas Fisher, a farmer near Old Pekin, and is the mother of six children, Ruth, Ruby, Hugh, Carl, George and Merle. Both Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are devout members of the Church of Christ and are among the most highly respected citizens of this community. Personally, Mr. Johnson is quiet and modest in manner, but forceful and influential for the best.

JOHN W. LEWIS.

Few names are better known in newspaper circles throughout southern Indiana than that of John W. Lewis, editor and proprietor of the Salem Republican-Leader. Mr. Lewis has been actively identified with the newspaper business in this section of the state since 1887 and since 1907 has been the owner of the paper above mentioned, whose destinies he has piloted with such wisdom and judgment as to make it one of the strongest forces for good government in this region.

John W. Lewis was born on a farm near Boonville, Warrick county, this state, on August 26, 1859, a son of the Rev. John A. and Asenath Jane (Haynes) Lewis, prominent and influential residents of that community, the former of whom was a native of North Carolina and the latter, of Tennessee. Rev. John A. Lewis was a well-known divine of the Presbyterian communion in Warrick county, who lost his life while serving as chaplain of the Tenth

An obit from The Republican Leader, May 27, 1887: A Sudden Death: A very sad accident occurred last Monday morning on the public road near the residence of Adam Wright, living a few miles south of town. Harrison Denny was acting in the capacity of Road Supervisor, and aa charge of dynamite was placed in a large rock in the road and the fuse was lighted by Mr. D. when he and the force of men at work ran away to a safe distance. The explosion not occurring as soon as expected, he started toward the rock, but before he reached it, the dynamite exploded, throwing a number of stones high in the air, one of them nearly perpendicular over a hundred feet, which descended unobserved upon his head, splitting his scalp and fracturing his skull on top, as well as at the base of the brain. The velocity of the stone ,which weighs five pounds, was so great as to force a large portion of a hand- kerchief, which he was wearing in his hat, clear into the brain. Died 3 hrs later. He was 68 years of age. A wife and 9 children survive him. (copy)

CHRISTOPHER
HARRISON DENNY

A Sudden Death

[The Republican Leader, May 27, 1887] — A very sad accident occurred last Monday morning on the public road near the residence of Adam Wright, living a few miles south of town. Harrison Denny was acting in the capacity of Road Supervisor, and a charge of dynamite was placed in a large rock in the road, and the fuse was lighted by Mr. D., when he and the force of men at work ran away to a safe distance. The explosion not occurring as soon as expected, he started toward the rock, but before he reached it, the dynamite exploded, throwing a number of stones high in the air, one of them nearly perpendicularly over a hundred feet, which descended unobserved upon his head, splitting his scalp and fracturing his skull on top, as well as at the base of the brain. The velocity of the stone, which weighs five pounds, was so great as to force a large portion of a handkerchief, which he was wearing in his hat, clear into the brain. He was immediately rendered unconscious, and died three hours afterward from shock and hemorrhage. Medical aid was soon summoned, but so extensive was the injury, that there was not the shadow of a chance to save his life, even if he had been a young man. Mr. D., aged 68, was one of our most respected and exemplary farmers, and his unexpected demise casts a gloom over the community where he was so well known and honored. Mr. D. was a man of excellent business capacity, and by economy and industry had accumulated quite a little fortune. A wife and nine children survive him. Dr. Murphy embalmed the body Monday night, in order that it might be kept until relatives from the west could arrive in time for the funeral, which took place Wednesday afternoon. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Enoch Parr, after which the remains were interred in the old Blue River grave yard.

CHRISTOPHER
HARRISON DENNY

[History of Washington County, 1884] June, 1887 — C. H. Denny, born in this county, December 9, 1818, a son of Samuel Denny and Dorothy D. Goff, died May 23, 1887, in an accident while acting in the capacity of Road Supervisor.

Notes

HUSBAND - Peter Wright Preacher

BIRTH: Info from Janet Pease. Birth date listed 1789. (not sure this is right). No Find A Grave.

MARRIAGE: Recorded Harrison Co. IN Janet didn't list any children for Peter.

DEATH: Info from Janet Pease. I haven't done research on this family other then census records. Died 1857. There was a Peter Wright age 60 (b. 1790 NC) clergyman with wife Margaret 48 MD but maybe this is another Peter?

1790 Peter would be 1 if b. 1789.

1800 Peter would be 11.

1810 Peter would be 21.

1820 Washington Co. IN Peter Wright m-to 10-2 26/45-1 f-to 10-3 25/45-1

1830 Washington Co. IN Peter Wright m-to 5-1 10/15-2 40/50-1 f-to 5-2 5/10-1 10/15-2 15/20-1 40/50-1

1840 Washington Co. IN Peter Wright m-10/15-1 50/60-1 f-15/20-1 20/30-1
50/60-1

1850 I had notation no Peter Wright 1850 but the other Peter age 60 was maybe another county? Need to go back & do more work on this family.

There was a book written by Wakefield & Steiner that has complete different info for this Peter that married Rachel Woods. Said Peter b. 1787 Rowan Co. NC & died 1841 Boone Co. MO. Rachel b. Rowan Co. NC d. Boone Co. MO md 1807. Peter md 2nd and had other children. Peter and Rachel and dau Elizabeth and son Washington left for Boone Co. MO because of his wives health to join his wives parents living in Boone Co. MO. Listed children as: Malinda, Nancy, Dempsey, Tillman, Elizabeth, Rebecca b. 1820 Washington Co. IN d. Lawrence Co. IN md Adam Sears 30 Jan 1840 b. Nicholas co. Ky d. 1896 Lawrence Co, IN, Violet d. young and Washington Wright. Peter was Preacher of Church of Christ in Salem, IN.

There were more Peter Wrights, and now don't know which is this Peter until I do more research on this line.

Info Peter Wright b. 1787 Rowan Co. NC d. 1841 Boone Co. MO.
wife Rachel Woods b. Rowan Co. NC d. Boone Co. MO md 1807

Malinda, Nancy, Dempsey, Tillman, Elizabeth, Rebecca d. Lawrence Co. IN. b. 1820 Washington co. IN md Adam Sears 30 Jan 1840. He was born Nicholas co. KY, died 1896 Lawrence Co. IN., violet d. young, Washington. (8 children by Rachel and 2nd mg had other children)

Peter, Rachel, dau Elizabeth & Washington departed for bone Co. Mo because of his wives health to join his wives parents living in Boone Co. MO.

WIFE - Rachel Wood(s)

BIRTH: Info from Janet Pease. Birth date listed 1789. (not sure this is right).

MARRIAGE: Recorded Harrison Co. IN Have no names of children but only ages from the census to date. At Least 9 children. One source says md 26 Mar 1812 and another says md 1807.

Washington Co. IN History pg 583: In the summer of 1856 George Beck was in Salem talking over ol times with LEVI WRIGHT, both being abt 65 yrs old. Wright was boasting about still being much of a man and finally challenged Beck to a foot race from the public square down to the railroad station. Beck agreed to run, and each was to go barefoot. The bet was a dollar and the parties were to take any part of the street or sidewalk they liked. Judges were selected and stationed at both starting and ending points of race. Bob McKinney was to act as starter and stakeholder. All being in readiness the hat was dropped and away they went. Wright was quickest and took the lead and started down the east side of the street, while Beck took the center. As Wright got opposite a blacksmith shop that stood abt half way down the street he struck some sharp cinders that caused him to slacken his gait, and while he was trying to avoid the cinders he stumbled and fell. Before he could straighten himself out again Beck had taken the lead with his loping gait, which he kept up steadily and won by ten feet and got the stake, which was soon spent and the old fellows made merry and put in the rest of the day taling over old times anew.

over and they got on this to reconnoiter. They soon discovered two deer a few hundred yards away, one big buck playing around in the hazel brush. The Major told George to remain in the tree top and he would make a circuit around and probably start them towards his hiding place, and if they came that way to make a sure shot on the big fellow. Presently the boy heard the report of his father's gun and saw the deer jump up high in the air and then make right for the tree where George was. As he came on at full speed, snorting and shaking his tail, George knew he was wounded. George took good aim, but his gun "flashed in the pan," and failed to go off, when the deer saw him and turned in another direction. The Major got in another shot, but the deer would not fall. They tracked him some distance by the blood, but did not come up with him. Young George wanted to go home and get the dogs, but the Major insisted that they would soon find him, and sure enough they did, in a big bunch of grass, mortally wounded. The deer could go no farther, and was soon finished. They then had meat and to spare for the mill raising. The buck had enormous horns having eight points on them.

George and John Beck, the two boys, started out coon hunting one night, and the dogs treed something in a huge poplar tree, too big to cut down. The tree was hollow and showed signs of bear. They set to work to smoke out whatever there was. They had a big pack of dogs along that kept up a terrible barking. Shortly after the fire was started they heard a rumbling and snorting inside, and in a few minutes a bear crawled out on a large limb. Now, a bear does not come down a tree gradually, but lets all holds go when in a hurry and tumbles down. John concluded to take a shot at the bear in the dark, and blazing away he took him through the fore leg, when down came Bruin. The dogs rushed in upon him. John took the ax and went in, too; so it wasn't long till they had the bear killed, as they thought. How to get him home was the next problem. The horses at that time ran at large on the range, one being belled. They heard the bell in the distance, and went for a horse to carry the bear home. As they were working and trying to get the bear on the horse's back, the old fellow gave a groan and a death kick, when the boys went one way and the horse another. The only thing then was to carry him home, a distance of some four miles, which took them most of the night. But there was an abundance of meat and oil in the house for a couple of weeks. Bear's oil was then saved up for cooking purposes and to burn in their lamps.

In the fall of 1808 the Beck boys started out on a hunt, and when down on section 25, the dogs ran something into a cave. They were not prepared with lights so as to enter the cave at the time, concluding if it was a bear's den he would keep. They were sure it was either bear or wolves that inhabited the cavern. The boys heard of the Indians capturing some bear down the river, so on Christmas day they started out, and their dogs again ran something into the cave, but they could not be induced to enter it. The boys concluded to go in and see what could be found. On all hunting trips they carried a tinder box equipped with the usual supply of flints, steel, punk or scorched linen. With torch lighted and guns cocked they went in. As they turned at a short angle they discovered the bear lying in his waller. John took the first shot while George held the light. It was not a dead shot, for the bear shuffled ahead of them and curled up in a close corner, where the boys were afraid to enter. They could still see him and another bullet put an end to the bear. With forked sticks twisted into his fur they succeeded in dragging him out of his den, and when he was dressed he weighed over four hundred pounds.

AN INTERESTING FOOT RACE.

In the summer of 1856 George Beck was in Salem talking over old times with Levi Wright, both being about sixty-five years old. Wright was boasting about still being much of a man, and finally challenged Beck to a foot race from the public square down to the railroad station. Beck agreed to run, and each was to go "barefoot." The bet was a dollar, and the parties were to take any part of the street or sidewalk they liked. Judges were selected and stationed at both starting and ending points of race. Bob McKinney was to act as starter and stakeholder. All being in readiness the hat was dropped and away they went. Wright was quickest and took the lead and started down the east side of the street, while Beck took the center of the street. As Wright got opposite a blacksmith shop that stood about half way down the street he struck some sharp cinders that caused him to slacken his gait, and while he was trying to avoid the cinders he stumbled and fell. Before he could straighten himself out again Beck had taken the lead with his loping gait, which he kept up steadily and won out by ten feet, and got the stake, which was soon spent and the old fellows made merry and put in the rest of the day talking over old times anew.

WIFE - Rebecca Wright

*Find A Grave of son Nathan & wife listed Inscription: Our mother. Wife of N. Buchanan. Aged 68 years 7 mos. She is gone to a land where the weary enjoy the sweet rapture of sacred repose. Other records listed she died in 1892 and if born 1801-2 as was stated she would have been 91. So maybe her birth date is off as husband said born abt 1791 died age 76 years 2mo.

Nothing else but years here. Not located either one in Find A Grave site but Janet Pease said located death from cemetery records of Roseburg Co. OR buried in the Old Pioneer cem, about 15 miles south of Myrtle Creek, OR. Only thing is there is no Roseburg Co. in Or and an Old Pioneer cem is located in Roseburg, OR in Douglas Co. OR (which nether place have them listed)

BIRTH: Info from Janet Pease. born abt 1801-2 Wayne Co. KY. I have only done census research so far on this family.

HUSBAND - Amos Wright JR (Minister)

*Find A Grave internet site listed birth and death dates and places. Pic of Cemetery name and one of cem and anohter stone but said no headstone for him. of cemetery. Parents: Amos Wright 1762-1846 and Elizabeth Lowe 1765-1806. Spouse: Jane Gross 1804-1870. Listed 3 of 6 children and 3 siblings with dates.

Obit found in the Western Sun, 20 Feb 1880, Vincennes, Knox Co. IN. Amos Wright, one of the old Pioneers of this county, has gone to his last resting place for which he has longed to see. He was in his 77th year and for several years has been very feeble. He was a minister of the gospel and labored in the Christian church until of late years and was believed to obey the teachings of the Bible as far ass he was able. He was buried last Sunday, in the old cemetery by the side of his wife, according his wishes.

Obituary ffound in the Salem Democrat, 18 Feb 1880, Big Spring Items Dated 16 Feb 1880

We understand that Eld. A. Wright an Old minister of the gospel in this county, died at the residence of his son in Edwardsport the 7th of this month. He was the father of N.B. Wright, of this township.

Also stated: I believe this the Edwardsport Town Cemetery is the one referred to in his obituary. there is no headstone.

HUSBAND - Amos Milton Wright (Elder)

*Find A Grave internet site listed Birth yr 1762 and death 1846. (birth on stone says 1763).

Born in Orange Co. NC or Rowan Co. NC. (brother before him said b. Orange Co. NC). Parents: Richard Wright 1726-1785 and Ann d. 1795. (Ann was Elizabeth Jane "Ann" Morgan b.1728-1733)

Spouses: Elizabeth Lowe 1765-1806 and Margaret Davis d. 1842 Children listed 4 of 8 with dates and 7 siblings with dates. Amos Wright, ELDER (Preacher). Copy of pic of double grave marker with Amos and Margaret and one pic of cemetery. Salem, Howard Twp, Washington Co. IN, Old Mill Creek Church of Christ cemetery. (said church on side of creek & cem on other side)

A note: The info regarding Amos Wright and 2nd wife, Margaret on the adjacent headstone is wrong. (Only thing I see is Amos's birth dated on stone in 1763 which other sources listed.)

Amos was the 7th of 8 sons born to Richard Wright Sr. and "Ann" (her surname is still unknown) But it is known and is Elizabeth Jane "Ann" Morgan. Here says Amos was born in 1762 possibly Orange Co. ND (which believe he was). His father acquired property in Orange Co., dated 3 Oct 1762 and again in Oct 1783 (So could be born in 1762 or 63 in Orange Co.) Otherwise Amos may have been born in what is now Patrick Co. VA?.

Amos Wright married Elizabeth Lowe in 1782 in Rowan Co. NC. Day/month unknown. On his stone also says he was a Rev. War Veteran. It is known that Amos is in the 1790 census with 5 members in his family 2 adults and 3 children.

Rev Amos Wright

Birth: May 18, 1805
Wayne County
Kentucky, USA
Death: Feb. 7, 1880
Edwardsport
Knox County
Indiana, USA

Obituary found in The Western Sun, 20 Feb 1880 Vincennes, Knox, Indiana
Amos Wright, One of the old Pioneers of this county, Has gone to his last resting place, for which he has longed to see. He was in his seventy-sixth year and for several years has been very feeble. He was a minister of the gospel, and labored in the Christian Church until of late years, and was believed to obey the teachings of the Bible as far as he was able. He was buried last Sunday in the old cemetery, by the side of his wife, according to his wishes.

Obituary found in The Salem Democrat, February 18, 1880, Big Spring Items Dated February 16, 1880

We understand that Eld. A. Wright an Old minister of the gospel in this county, died at the residence of his son in Edwardsport the 7th of this month. He was the father of N. B. Wright, of this township.

I believe this the The Edwardsport Town Cemetery is the one referred to in his obituary. There is no headstone.

1821-1870 The Children (Grand) Copple,
Indiana

First record in issue, June 7, 1874 at Edwardsport, Knox County, Indiana, our beloved sister, Jane Wright (consort of Elder Amos Wright), aged 85 years, 5 months, and 5 days.

Sister Wright was born in Wayne County, Kentucky in 1804. Her parents both died while she was yet a child, leaving her an orphan, to be cared for by her grandmother. In 1816 her eldest sister moved to Indiana, bringing the orphan girl with her. In 1821 she was married by Elder John Wright, one of the pioneer preachers of Indiana. She was then 17 years of age. In the year 1827, on September 26, she and Amos Wright, Jr. were married. She was the mother of seven children, four of whom have preceded her in death, and three left to follow. (Elder John Wright is the elder brother to Amos James husband)

By using the clues in Jane (Gross) Wright's
Obituary, I found Jane's sister Elizabeth Gross born 1760 Virginia married Peter Gubrap in Wayne County, Kentucky on 14 Aug 1814 and married in Washington, Indiana 1818 and had several children there and later moved to Missouri. Jane and Elizabeth's Father appears to be Jacob Gross born and 1771 Virginia died 1814 Wayne County, Kentucky lived in Wayne, Kentucky the 1810 Census has 4 Males under 10 1 Male 26-44 1 Female 10-24 1 Female 26-40 he married Nancy Summers born 1760 on 23 Feb 1803 Wayne County, Kentucky. I believe he was possibly married 2 other times to Mary Hillborn born 1775 and Mary

HUSBAND - Philburt Wright

*Find A Grave internet site listed his birth and death dates and places. Pic of his grave marker which is almost readable. Also pic of stone wall in front of Wright cemetery. Parents: Richard Wright 1726-1785 and Ann ? - 1795. Spouse: Mary Molly Sears 1776-1830. Listed 12 children with dates. All listed in Find A Grave also. Hee listed 7 siblings also with dates.

Philbert Wright married Molly Sears and came from NC in 1808. After living a short time in Clark's Grant, he came to Washington Co. in 1809. The Wrights built a cabin, cleared the land, tilled the soil and mad a home for their family of 11 children. During the years the Wrights lived there, the cemetery was established. The records show that Molly Sears Wright was the first buried there.

(From History of Washington co. IN, 1884).

Philbert Wright an old pioneer who immigrated from NC in about 1809 came to what is now Washington Twp, Washington co. IN where he passed the remainder of his days until his death 31 Jul 1855. (He did have a 2nd wife but no children.) (copy)

Family group sheets from LDS library stated b. Rowan Co. d. Wayne Co. IN. which is not right.

Located records in Washington Co. IN. Also burial record in the Philburt Wright cemetery which is near Salem, IN.

Info sent from Dale Walker info and Janet Pease also.

BIRTH: 1766 date from Dale Walker and 1768 came from DAR member Linage Book 134 pg 222 as did Janet Pease. Listed in will of father in 1784 as under 18.

MARR1: DAR listed date, was probably in Rowan Co. NC. had 12 children. Molly Sears

MARR2: Marriage record in Washington Co. IN court house. ?No children. Elizabeth Devon Beck

DEATH: DAR records list date. Will of Philburt Wright from Book A pg 457-59 Washington Co. IN written 30 Jun 1834 and probated 2 Aug 1855. Listed all 12 children.

CHILDREN: Not sure where the children were born, some in Rowan Co. NC and some in Washington Co. IN and maybe in KY as well.

Washington Co. IN History pg 683-4: Filbert and Molly Wright went first to KY. then 1807 went to Clark Co. IN then 1808 to Washington Co. IN. Settled 3 miles south of Salem, entered grant for land. His father Richard Wright was wealthy land owner in Rowan Co. NC.

PG 804: Philburt Wright, son of Richard Wright was the first of his family to settle here. Located on the farm once owned by Harry Denny, now in the possession of Henry Roberts. (book pub. after 1900?) Names all children.

PG 540: Philburt Wright took up land 2 1/2 miles south west of Salem on Blue River.

PG 547: Philburt Wright had a mill 1835 to 1870 1 mile west of his farm. (since Philburt died 1855 and he didn't have a son by that name-don't know who was referred to or date was wrong.)

1800 Rowan Co. NC pg 359: Philburt Wright 20010-200010-00

1820 Washington Co. IN: Philburt Wright males--to 10-2 16/26-1 over 45-1 and females--to 10-2 10/16-2 16/26-1 26/45-1

1830 Washington Co. IN: Philburt Wright males--10/15-1 15/20-1 60/70-1 and females 60/70-1

1840 census Waco, TX didn't have so have to do later.

1850 Washington Co. IN: Philbert Wright 84 NC, Elizabeth 62 KY, Sarah Copple 74 IN.

DAR Member Linage Book 134 pg 222 Mrs Belva Rudder Wright #133736 descend from Richard Sr. 1768-1855 & Richard JR 1776-1830 to dau Nancy Purlee 1794-1888.

There was a difference in birth dates from Dale Walkers info and Janet Pease's info. Listed is Janets info. Dales was: Nancy b. 1794, Elizabeth 1797, Evans 1799, Sarah 1800 Wayne Co. Ky, Eli b. 18??, Delilah b. 18??, John 1806, Catherine 1810 IN, Absalom 1811 IN, Selah, Mary, Barbara D. 1826 IN. Till I can find these people in the census to check their birth dates will use Janets info. as they were most of what the Washington Co History had as well.

WIFE - Mary "Molly" Sears

*Find A Grave internet site listed birth and death dates of Mary Molly Sears. Picture of her grave marker and one of stone fence by Wright cemetery. She was said to be first one buried there.

Mary (Molly) Sears was born in NC 13 Feb 1776 (different date of 13 Sep) Death on stone does list Sep 10, 1830 Other placed death listed as 18 Sep. Parents: Christian Sears 1742-1843 and Barbara Stutzman 1759-1832. Spouse: Philbert Wright 1768-1855. Listed 12 children which said all were listed in Philbert's will by name.

Her parents are identified on Page 137 of book "genealogy of the Wright Family, Descendants of Richard Wright, Sr. by Lillie White 1943 - as Christian Sears, born about 1753 in Rowan Co. NC. Later research shows her mother was Barbara Stutzman (She was/is seen as "Catherine" especially in abobe mentioned book - and in other research, but it is in error). they wer the parents of six children which they listed: Jacob, Molly, Sarah, Elizabeth md James Wright, nephew of Philbert, David & John.

All children were born in Rowan co. NC. In her fathers will Mary (Molly) is referred to as "Polly Wright" .

At the age of 17 in 1783 Mary Married Philbert Wright, the youngest son of Richard Wright in Rowan Co NC.

There 12 children are "linked" below. One child often mentioned as "son" is a Philbert Wright, b. 1802. that is untrue.

Notes

Philbert never had a "Philbert Jr" as attested by Philbert 1768's will. All 112 children are mention by name. (copy)

Info from Dale Walker info and Janet Pease. Also family group sheets from LDS and County histories and wills. All sources don't agree on dates so need to check them later.

Philbert and Molly had 12 children and all were listed in his will.

1800 Rowan Co. NC Philbert had female right age for wife.

1820 Washington Co. IN Philburd had female age 26/45, probably Molly.

1830 Washington Co. In Philburd had female age 60/70 probably Molly.

CHILD 1 - Nancy Wright

*Find A Grave internet site listed her birth and death dates and places. She was age 94. Pic of entrance to cemetery. Parents: Philbert Wright 1768-1855 and Mary Molly Sears 1776-1830. Spouse: Jacob Purlee 1789-1867. Listed 2 children and 11 siblings all with dates.

Wife of Jacob Purlee 13 Feb 1789 - 4 Jul 1867 - Married 1815. Information gathered from headstones by Jean Marshall in 1967. (copy)

Info from DAR records of Belva Rudder a descendant.

BIRTH: Info from DAR records, Janet Pease, Dale Walker info.

MARRIAGE: No one has mg date but was before 1820 (abt 1815-16?) Prob. IN.

DEATH: DAR records listed year of death at age 94 yrs.

1800 census Nancy would be 6 and prob. with parents in Rowan Co. NC

1810 not located parents but Nancy age 16.

1820 Washington Co. IN Not checked for Nancy in census to date. Need to check further census records as well.

Washington Co. IN History pg 681-686 on the Purlee & Rudder families. Also some on Richard Wright Sr.

Several internet sites 2009 listed info on Nancy and Jacob Purlee and said 8 children from 1816 thru 1830. Parents of Nancy Philbert and Mary Sears, grandparents Richard Wright and Ann.

CHILD 2 - Eli Wright

*Find A Grave internet site listed his birth and death dates and places. Pic of his grave marker looks like half in ground and one of stone fence at cemetery. Both buried in the Philbert Wright Cemetery. Eli died of Cholera and Elizabeth died of Tuberculosis. They had 5 children. and listed 11 siblings all with dates.

Eli son of Philbert and Mary (Sears) Wright, grandson of Richard Wright Sr. was born in Rowan co. NC. Came with his parents to what is now Washington Co IN in 1809. Married in Clark Co. IN. 11 Feb 1819 to Elizabeth Bower. Eli and wife settled on a farm two miles south of Salem, In immediately after marriage. He built one of the first mills in Washington Twp. in about 1821, which was known as Wrights Old Water Mill. In 1840 a sash saw mill was added and it did a good business for many years. Eli was very successful in business and they (his family) were among the very best citizens of the community. Mrs Wright was a member of the church of christ at Blue River. (copy) settled on this farm at an early day, when most of it was in heavy timber. They toiled together, felled the forest and made for themselves one among the best farms in Washington Co. By honest toll and economy they accumulated quite a handsome fortune. (which you can tell by the grave marker-GLT).

A few thoughts may not be out of order in reference to the life which has been finished here. she was born 3 months before George Washington's death, 12-14-1799, hence she lived during the lives of every president of the United States. She saw the U.S. grow from 13 states to 44. She was 16 when Jackson fought the Battle of New Orleans, 1-8-1815. She saw this country through here when it was covered over with forests and inhabited by wild animals. The inhabitants were largely Indians. She saw the Indians and wild ferocious animals give way to civilization, the forests were felled and fields were made to blossom and wage with golden grain. She saw communities gro into villages, villages into towns and towns into cities. She saw and worked at the trundle-wheel which was given way to the steam loom and spinning-jenny. During her life the sickle has given way to the self binder, the lail to the steam thresher. In her girlhood days it took from 1 to 2 months to make the journey from Washington Co to her old home in NC. and now by rail the journey can be made in 24 hours. She saw the full development of the splendid road system, the telegraphic and telephone systems. When we begin to study ones life such as that of Sarah Zink, it brings to our minds the burdens and hardships which the pioneers endured. These hardships and burdens have resulted in blessings to the younger generations, many of which are disregarded and for which those pioneers are not thanked. (little more).

She lived the last few years of her life with her son in law Burrill Roberts where she died. Funeral conducted by S.H. Mitchell at his residence, followed her remains to Crown Hill cem where her body was placed beside her husband.

CHILD 5 - Barbara Wright

* Find A Grave internet site listed her birth and death date and places.. Parents: Philbert Wright 1768-1855 and Mary Molly Sears 1776-1830. Spouse: Ransom Johnson 1799-1838. Believe had 7 children, all listed with dates. 11 siblings with dates.

Early info on Barbara Wright Johnson- daughter of Philbert Wright and Mary Molly Sears- is sparse, however, much can be gained on her few later years as follows.

As best we can be determined, Barbara was born about Aug 1801, in Rowan Co. Nc. based strickly on birth of first child, Warren in 1822, its believed Barbara md Ransom Johnson about late 1821 or early 1822, thought no marriage document has been found.

Barbara died closer to late 1832 in Washington Co. IN as her husband Ransom Johnson married a Barbara Copple in Jan 1833. According to "History of Lawrence , Orange and Washington counties Ind from the earliest time to the present together were interesting biographical sketches, reminiscences, notes, etc." and published in 1884 by Goodspeed Bros & on page 894 written about Barbara and Ransom's son Nelson - both parents died whe he was very young. Given the close proximity of the datew, it is possible that Barbara died either during childbirth of Ransom, Jr in Aug 1832 or shortly thereafter.

<http://cdm15078.contentdm.ocic.org/cdm/ref/collection/p1819coll6/24006-page894>

It appears Ransom and Barbara had 7 children in the short 10 years they were married.

Philbert Wright

Birth: Mar. 29, 1768
Rowan County
North Carolina, USA
Death: Jul. 31, 1855
Washington County
Indiana, USA

Philbert Wright married Molly Sears and came from North Carolina in 1808.

After living a short time in Clark's Grant, he came to Washington County in 1809. The Wrights built a cabin, cleared the land, tilled the soil, and made a home for their family of eleven children. During the years the Wrights lived here, the cemetery was established. The records show that Molly Sears Wright was the first buried there.

History of Washington County, 1884

Philbert Wright, an old pioneer who immigrated from North Carolina in about 1809 and came to what is now Washington Township, Washington County, Indiana, where he passed the remainder of his days until his death July 31, 1855.

Mary Molly Sears Wright

Birth: Sep. 13, 1776, USA
Death: Sep. 18, 1830, USA

Mary (Molly) Sears, was born in North Carolina, 13 Feb 1776. Her parents are identified on Page 137 of book, "Genealogy of the Wright Family, Descendants of Richard Wright, Sr., by Lillie White 1943" - as Christian Sears, born about 1753 in Rowan County, NC. Later research shows her mother was Barbara Stutzman. [She was/is seen as 'Catherine' especially in above mentioned book - and in some other research, but it is in error.]

They were the parents of six children:

Jacob

Mary (Molly)-m. Philbert Wright [1768-1855]

Sarah

Elizabeth [m. James Wright, nephew of Philbert]

David

John

All children were born in Rowan County, North Carolina. In her father's will, Mary [Molly] is referred to as 'Polly Wright'.

At the age of 17, in 1793, Mary married Philbert Wright, the youngest son of Richard Wright, in Rowan County.

Their 12 children are 'linked' below. One child often mentioned as 'son' is a Philbert Wright, b. 1802. That is untrue. Philbert never had a 'Philbert, Jr.' as attested by Philbert 1768's will. All 12 children are mention by name.

This from DAR records of Mrs Belva Rudder Wright of Salem, on a farm which he had bought and upon which he lived until 1910, when he moved to the present location. The present farm is located on the south edge of Salem, and the farm residence, which was completed in September, 1911, is a modern structure of unusual and attractive design. Owing to his interest in desirable farm land, Mr. Morris has bought a number of smaller tracts of land in the vicinity of Salem. He has about two hundred acres of cultivated land on the north and south border of Salem and also owns a forty-acre tract in another section.

Mr. Morris, aside from the regular duties of the farm, has taken an active interest in the business life of Salem, where he is one of the prominent figures. He is president of the Salem Milling Company, in which concern he is a large stockholder. He also holds stock in the Farmers State Bank, of which he is a director and vice-president, and for several years has served on the board of directors of the Stout Manufacturing Company, in which company he holds part ownership. Until 1915 Mr. Morris served as president of the Washington county fair association, but was obliged to resign on account of illness. In political affairs, Mr. Morris has often been chosen to serve the public in various ways, and has returned the honor by executing the duties of these offices in a manner worthy of the highest commendation. For four years he has been trustee of Washington township, and is one of the two Republicans who have served in this office, in a period of twenty years. This fact alone gives ample proof of his popularity in political circles. In 1910 he was nominated by his party for the office of county auditor, but in a close race, in which he drew heavily from the normal majority of the opposition, he was defeated. Mr. Morris is interested in politics not especially for the glorification of any certain party but of a sincere desire to assist in movements for the welfare of the community at large. He served as mayor of Salem in 1914, and at the present time is a member of the town board.

On March 30, 1894, the marriage of Roscoe Morris and Jennie B. Paynter was solemnized. She is the daughter of William and Mildred (Motsinger) Paynter, and was born five miles southeast of Salem. William Paynter, who was born southeast of Salem, was the son of John and Katie (Etzer) Paynter, the former of whom, a native of Pennsylvania, moved to this section of the county with his wife in 1815, having lived for a short time in Virginia. Mildred (Motsinger) Paynter is the daughter of Daniel and Fanny (Shepherd) Motsinger, and was born in Pierce township, eight miles southwest of Salem, in the community where her father's parents settled after leaving North Carolina over a hundred years ago. She is still living on the Paynter farm; her husband, William Paynter, died in March, 1913, at the age of seventy-seven years. Mrs. Roscoe Morris traces her ancestry back to the War of the Revolution. Her grandfather, John Paynter, was the son of a soldier who was sent from England with the Hessian soldiers to fight for that country. Upon arriving in this country and learning the American side of the conflict, he deserted the cause of England and fought under George Washington. This country honored him with a pension for his services until his death. He was also the grandfather of Judge Paynter, Dr. H. M. Paynter and other citizens of distinction.

The children born to Mr. and Mrs. Morris are as follow: Lotus, who died in infancy; Elsie, who is at Purdue University; Lois, who completed the high school course in 1915; Grace, Arthur, Lee and Florence. Mrs. Morris is a member of the Methodist church. Mr. Morris is actively affiliated with Masons, in which organization he has attained the council degree; he is also a member of the Knights of Pythias, the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and belonged to the Elks, when that organization maintained a club at Salem.

WILLIAM HIRAM RUDDER.

In the drug business few men are better known in the state of Indiana than William Hiram Rudder, a well-known druggist of Salem, Indiana, a graduate of the Chicago College of Pharmacy, who has been engaged in the business since he was fifteen years old. Mr. Rudder served on the state board of pharmacy, first by appointment from Governor Hanly and second by reappointment from Governor Marshall.

Born on November 14, 1871, in Howard township, seven miles south of Salem, near what was then called Rudder's mill on Blue river, William Hiram Rudder is the son of William and Nancy E. (Purlee) Rudder, the former of whom was born in Vernon township on December 12, 1845, and who was the son of James and Elizabeth (Barnett) Rudder. James Rudder was born in Bath county, Kentucky, October 9, 1826, and died on January 28, 1887. He was elected as a member of the Indiana state Legislature in 1872 and served during both the regular and special sessions. James Rudder was the son of John M. Rudder, who was born on February 6, 1788, in Virginia, and who died in Washington county, Indiana, in 1852. John M. Rudder was the son of Charles Rudder, a native of Lunenburg county, Virginia, who was born in 1760, and who died in Kentucky in 1837. Charles Rudder was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, having enlisted in 1780 under Captain Threadgill, who commanded a company of Virginia troops, and having served until the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown. John M. Rudder's family consisted of three sons and three daughters by his second wife, who came to Washington county. They were: Nancy, who married David Barnett; James; Charles; Hiram; Miranda, who married James Fultz; and Amanda, who married Andrew Holsapple. Miranda and Amanda are both living in Washington county. James Rudder lived near Campbellsburg until about 1864, when he moved to Blue river, seven miles below Salem, at what was then called Green's mill. He came to Washington county in 1842 with his father, John M. Rudder, who settled about two miles east of Campbellsburg. The family had expected to go to Illinois and instead remained in this county. John M. Rudder had emigrated to Bath county, Kentucky, in 1814, and had there married Lucinda Cartwell in 1815. His wife died in November, 1823, and he was next married to Elizabeth Kennedy, who became the mother of James Rudder.

After James Rudder's removal into the vicinity of Green's mill he purchased the mill and it was thereafter called Rudder's mill. There was a farm which was a part of the mill property and the family operated this farm until 1870, when his son, William, was taken into partnership. They were partners together until the death of James, in January, 1887. James Rudder was a minister in the Christian church for more than thirty years, and he preached in nearly all of the churches in this part of the state. He was widely known as a minister in Washington, Orange, Harrison and Crawford counties. He assisted in establishing a number of churches and under his ministry, more than three thousand persons were added to the church. His wife, Elizabeth Barnett, was born in Washington county, Kentucky, and was a daughter of William F. and Sarah E. (Sloan) Barnett, the former of whom was born in June, 1795, in North Carolina, and died in August, 1863. Sarah E. Sloan was born in 1797 in Kentucky and died in 1850. William F. Barnett was the son of William F. and Mary (Fawbush) Barnett, both of whom were born in North Carolina and both died in Kentucky, the former at the age of one hundred and three years and the latter at the age of one hundred and five. Elizabeth Barnett was only four years old when she came to Washington county in 1829 and settled with her parents four miles south of Salem, where they lived for several years. The family then moved to a place three miles south of Campbellsburg, where her parents spent the remainder of their lives. It was there that she was married to James Rudder on March 13, 1845. She died on July 7, 1911, at the age of eighty-six years.

To James Rudder and wife were born six children: William, of Salem; Sarah, who died in 1830, at the age of two years; John, who died in 1854, at the age of three years; Emma L., who is the wife of Asa Elliott, of Salem; Lewis, who died in 1865, at the age of nine years, and Dora, the wife of Jacob Denny, who lives three miles west of Pekin.

William Rudder lived near his father and operated the mill until 1885, when he was appointed to fill the unexpired term of A. J. McIntosh as sheriff of Washington county. Afterward he was elected to fill the same office and then re-elected. In 1891 he became the partner in the drug business in Salem with Benjamin H. Cravens and engaged in business with him under the firm name of Rudder & Cravens for a little more than two years, when he bought Mr. Cravens' interest in the business and operated it alone until 1895. In 1895 William H. Rudder, the subject of this sketch, was taken into partnership with his father, but since 1891 he had the active management of the store.

William Rudder served as trustee of Howard township for twelve years while he was engaged in operating the old Rudder mill. He is a member of the York Rite branch of the Masonic fraternity and has filled every position in the Blue lodge, in the chapter and in the council, a number of times. He is also a Knight Templar. He has been an active member of the Christian church for many years.

William Rudder was married on October 26, 1865, to Nancy Purlee, who was born seven miles south of Salem and who is the daughter of Hiram and Mary (Naugle) Purlee. Hiram Purlee was born four miles south of Salem on February 13, 1821, and died on November 19, 1907. He was the son of Jacob and Nancy (Wright) Purlee. Jacob Purlee was born in North Carolina about 1790 and came to Washington county in 1814, locating three miles south of Salem, where he entered government land. He married Nancy Wright in 1815 or 1816. She was born on February 17, 1794, in North Carolina, and died at the age of ninety-four years in 1888, on the farm which her husband had entered south of Salem. This farm passed to their son and from him to their grandson, who owns it now. Nancy Wright was the daughter of Filbert and Molly (Sears) Wright, who were married in Rowan county, North Carolina, in 1793, and who came first to Kentucky, and in 1807 to Clark county, Indiana. In 1808 they came to Washington county and settled three miles south of Salem, where they entered government land.

Filbert Wright's father, Richard Wright, was either of English or Welsh parentage and was a wealthy landowner in Rowan county, North Carolina. Hiram Purlee grew up south of Salem and was married to Mary Naugle in 1840. She was born south of Salem on a farm adjoining that of the Purlees in 1822 and died on March 20, 1894. She was the daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth (Young) Naugle, the former of whom was born in 1798 in Virginia, and who died in Washington county in 1874. He was the son of Nicholas Naugle, who was the son of John Naugle. Nicholas Naugle, it is believed, was born in Germany in 1766, and died five miles east of Salem in 1854, and where he located about 1830. He served in the War of 1812 and, after the battle of New Orleans, in which he participated, had to walk all the way back to Virginia.

Jacob Naugle, who came to Washington county with his father, and who married Elizabeth Young, was a well-known pioneer citizen. Jacob Naugle had one son who served in the Mexican War and three sons who served in the Civil War. His wife, Elizabeth Young, was born in Pennsylvania in 1805 and died five miles south of Salem. She was the daughter of Nicholas and Mary Young, who came to Washington county in 1820. Nicholas Young was born in Pennsylvania in 1779 and died in Washington county in 1843. His wife was born in Pennsylvania in 1775 and also died in Washington county in 1843. Nicholas Naugle's father, John Naugle, who was born in Germany, came to America, landing at Boston some time before the American Revolution. He served in the Revolutionary army and, being wounded in service, did not live long after the close of that war.

Mrs. Nancy (Purlee) Rudder, who was born on October 17, 1848, died on September 29, 1885. She was the mother of seven children: James L., who was born in 1866 and died in 1912, was for a number of years a member of the firm of Graves & Company at Salem; Cora E., who was born in 1867, died in 1885; Stella M., who is the wife of William Shaffer, lives on the old home place, seven miles south of Salem; William H. is the subject of this sketch; Lawrence Ellis lives on the old home farm south of Salem; Lulu Dessie and Belva A. live at home in Salem.

William H. Rudder grew up in the vicinity of Rudder's mill. In 1885 he came to Salem, Indiana, and, four years later, was graduated from the Salem high school. During the winter of 1890-91 he attended the Chicago College of Pharmacy and, in the winter of 1893-94, attended the same institution, graduating with the class of 1894. Previously, Mr. Rudder had worked in the drug store of Charles McClintock, as early as 1886. He had worked in the store during the mornings and evenings while attending high school. He remained at home until September, 1890, but in July, 1891, came into his father's drug store as the manager. In 1895 he became a partner in the business and has continued so ever since. Mr. Rudder was a member of the Indiana Board of Pharmacy from May, 1907, to May, 1915, serving altogether a term of eight years. He is an active Democrat, but has never held any office except the honorary membership on the board of pharmacy.

Mr. Rudder is a member of the Christian church and has been a member since 1886. For a number of years he has been an elder in the church and is active in religious and fraternal work. He has held all of the chairs in the Blue lodge, the chapter and the council of the Masonic fraternity. Mr. Rudder is also a member of the National and State Pharmaceutical Associations and has served as a member of many important committees in both organizations.

On October 26, 1898, William H. Rudder was married to Edith Attkisson, who was born at Cumming, Georgia, and is the daughter of Stephen Curtis and Zerelda (Sill) Attkisson. Mrs. Rudder's father was born in Salem in 1833 and died on October 23, 1903, at Salem, where he spent most of his life. He was the son of Alexander and Jemima (Oglesby) Attkisson, both of whom were born in Virginia, the father in 1790 and the mother in 1792. His father died in 1857 in Salem and the mother in 1858. They came first to Kentucky and then to Washington county, Indiana, in the early twenties. Alexander Attkisson taught school for a number of years in Washington county. In 1833 he was elected sheriff of Washington county and served until 1838. He was afterward elected recorder of the county. His wife, Jemima Oglesby, came from an old aristocratic Virginia family. Stephen Curtis Attkisson entered the Union army as a first lieutenant of Company D, Thirty-eighth Indiana Infantry, and served three years. After he returned home, he organized Company C, One Hundred and Forty-fourth Indiana Volunteer Infantry, and served with distinction throughout the remainder of the war. He was appointed revenue collector for the Georgia district and served continuously for eleven years. After this, he returned to Salem and was engaged in various enterprises until 1889, when he engaged in the Pullman service as a conductor, serving until his death, in 1903. His wife, who, before her marriage, was Zerelda Sill, was born at New Albany on March 5, 1842, her parents being William and Harriet (Robinson) Sill. William Sill was born in Allegheny county, Pennsylvania. He came first to Ohio and then to New Albany, Indiana. Harriet (Robinson) Sill belonged to the Hamilton family and was a distant relative of Alexander Hamilton. William Sill died in New Albany and, after his death, his widow married a Mr. Gibbons and they came to Washington county and lived here many years. She died here about 1905. Her daughter, Zerelda (Sill) Attkisson, came to Washington county with her and is still living at Salem. Mrs. Rudder grew up at Salem and was graduated from the Salem high school in the same class as her husband. She is a member of the Methodist church and is active in all church work, and for twenty years she was the organist of the church. She is also an accomplished pianist. She is the mother of two children, one son, born in July, 1899, who died in infancy, and Stephen William, born on May 12, 1906.

JOHN T. J. GRAVES.

One of the leading business men of Washington county, Indiana, is John T. J. Graves, merchant and banker of Salem. Mr. Graves was born on October 24, 1875, in Pierce township, this county, son of William A. and Mary (Elrod) Graves, a sketch of whose lives appears elsewhere in this book. John T. J. Graves was a boy of ten years when the family moved to the town of Pekin, and there he attended school and grew to young manhood. He received his later education at Borden Institute, Borden, Indiana, and upon completing his college work, at the age of twenty, in May, 1895, he was united in marriage with Leota C. Cauble, who was born in Pekin, a daughter of Andrew J. Cauble and sister of Omar L. Cauble, whose family history is given elsewhere in this volume, dating back to the time of the first settlement of this county.

For two or three years after marriage, Mr. Graves worked in the timber business and then established a hardware and implement business at Pekin, and leaving this in charge of his brother, Oliver P. Graves, he took a position on the road as traveling salesman for the Parry Manufacturing Company of Indianapolis. After two years of this work, he gave up and took charge of his business in Pekin. In 1900 he established a branch house at Salem, and in the fall of 1903 disposed of the Pekin store. The following winter he moved his family to Salem, where he has since resided and given his attention to the development of his various business connections in this place. He admitted James L. Rudder to partnership in the business at Salem and in the fall of 1904 they erected the large business block, which they occupy on South Main street, being one of the largest buildings in Salem. It has two stories and basement and covers a space of forty-eight by one hundred and forty-four feet. The firm has always been known as J. T. J. Graves & Company, and to their original lines they have added buggies, harness and a full line of such supplies as farmers need. Their business has steadily grown and has reached most pleasing proportions.

In the fall of 1906 Mr. Graves purchased the Pekin Canning factory, and has continued to operate it since. He assisted in the organization of the Farmers State Bank, which commenced business in 1909, and has served as president of that institution from the first. This bank has a capital stock of forty thousand dollars and does a thriving business. Mr. Graves also has business connections in the city of Paoli. In the spring of 1915 he organized the Paoli Hardware Company and is vice-president and a director of the company. They deal in hardware, implements, buggies, harness and farmers' supplies. Mr. Graves was also one of the promoters of the Paoli State Bank, which begun business in the fall of 1914, and is engaged in other business enterprises in both cities.

In politics, Mr. Graves is an ardent Republican, and on that ticket was elected clerk of the circuit court in the fall of 1906, discharging the duties of that office in a satisfactory manner. He holds fraternal affiliation with the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks and also with the Modern Woodmen of America. To Mr. and Mrs. Graves has been born a family of five children, namely: Ruby, Lena, Elizabeth, Paul Andrew and George Garland, all of whom are attending school, Ruby having graduated from the Salem high school in the class of 1914-15, and is now taking a commercial course in the local business college.

CALEB W. MORRIS.

Few men have lived a more vigorous life than did the late Caleb W. Morris, a real friend to the needy, a neighbor in the most complete sense of the term and a father and husband whose wise council and tender devotion created an ideal home atmosphere, as well as engendered the love of his fellowmen. His life work is a better monument than aught else, for his creed of life was, "To do something, to go forward, be honest, just and kind."

Caleb W. Morris was born on June 10, 1838, in Gibson township, Washington county, Indiana. On December 14, 1865, he was united in marriage to Mary E. Carr, and eleven children were born of the union, of whom Frankie (Davis) Callaway, on November 3, 1836, and had as the fruit of his marriage eight children, of whom two, Mrs. Hamilton and Erastus, of Oakland, California, are living.

To Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Hamilton were born three children, Ethel E., John C. and Burton E. Ethel, the wife of George Townsend, resides at Metleary, Washington, and has one son, George. John C., who had been employed as a mail clerk on the railroad for some time, but who is now engaged in farming the old home place in Monroe township, married Nellie Burcham and has one daughter, Naomi. Burton E., who is unmarried, lives at Kossuth with his mother.

After the death of her husband, in 1891, Mrs. Hamilton continued operating the farm until 1913, at which time she removed to Kossuth. She owns one hundred and seventy-eight acres in Monroe township.

Charles W. Hamilton was identified with the Presbyterian church. He was a staunch Democrat.

WILLIAM BRUCE WRIGHT.

William Bruce Wright, well-known farmer of Washington township, Washington county, Indiana, was born on October 18, 1865, about one-half mile south of where he now lives, two and one-half miles southwest of Salem. He is a son of Adam H. Wright, a sketch of whose career will be found elsewhere within this book, in the sketch of subject's brother, Eli M. Wright. William Bruce Wright lived at the family home until grown, receiving his education at a private school taught by Prof. William G. May, of Salem. All the active years of his life he has given to farming, beginning this work on his own account in the spring of 1886 on the land he now owns. He began on what was a portion of his father's land, which he rented and about fifteen years later purchased additional ground, which makes his farm contain now two hundred and fifty-four acres. He has made all the improvements on the place. He has a nice house erected on high ground and a well-improved farm in every respect. He calls his home "Stony Point," the name suggested by the good stone quarry in the little valley near the point of land where his house now stands.

William B. Wright was married in the fall of 1885, his wife being Anna C. Cauble, born about three miles south of her present home, a daughter of Thomas B. and Ellen V. (Shanks) Cauble. Mrs. Wright is a niece of Manson Shanks, whose history will be found on another page of this volume, while that of Thomas B. Cauble, father of Mrs. Wright, also appears on another page. Mr. and Mrs. Wright have a family of five children. Mabel, the eldest, is the wife of Herbert Trueblood, and resides about one mile south of her father's home. She has one daughter, Anna Florence. Ruth Florence is the wife of Merritt Carter, and lives about four miles west of Salem. She has one daughter, Elizabeth Ellen. Lillian Jones is at home with her parents, after having completed her studies in the State Normal School at Terre Haute. Elizabeth Ellen is also at home, as is also Harold, aged nine, the youngest of the family.

Mr. Wright gives his political support to the Democratic party, although taking no active part in such matters. He is a quiet and industrious man, well worthy of the high esteem in which he is held by all who have the pleasure of his acquaintance.

WARDER W. STEVENS.

Warder W. Stevens, son of Henderson and Catharine (Hicks) Stevens, was born on September 30, 1845, at Cecilia, Hardin county, Kentucky. His father was born near Corydon, Indiana, on April 27, 1811, and his mother in Hardin county, Kentucky, on February 3, 1822. The father died in January, 1890, and the mother in December, 1898.

William Stevens, the paternal grandfather of Warder W. Stevens, was born in Washington county, Kentucky, in 1802, and was married to Sarah Simpson, a native of Ireland, on June 3, 1823. The marriage taking place in Harrison county, Indiana.

Daniel Hayden, the maternal grandfather of Mr. Stevens, was a native of Pennsylvania, having been born in that state on June 22, 1780, and was married to Hannah Shacklet in 1800. After their marriage they moved to Kentucky, where they were among the early settlers of that section. The great-grandfather, John Hayden, the father of Daniel Hayden, was a soldier of distinction in the Revolutionary War.

The parents of William Stevens, the father of Henderson Stevens, came to Kentucky in 1794 and suffered the hardships of many Indian battles, as well as other difficulties of the early settlers.

Warder W. Stevens received his education in the common school of his county and is a graduate of the high school of Corydon, having studied under Professor May. In 1867 he received the degree of Bachelor of Arts

Not checked for later census info to date.

Philbird became a school teacher, had went to school in a log school 2 miles south of Salem. The farm where he and his son Grant lived was known as "Riverdale" and had 276 acres. (Washington Co History).

WIFE - Elizabeth WISEMAN-1885

Washington Co. In history pg 803-4in bio of Grant Wright.

CHILD 1 - Grant F. WRIGHT-1888

Washington Co. In history pg 803-4in bio of Grant Wright. Living on the farm with his father. (at time of book written).

He was born Washington Twp. born on same farm he resides with his father.

He attended school in Salem and at May's academy. Active Democrat and member of church of Christ at Ft. Hill Chapel. Has 267 acres of which 50 acres are timber. This farm is known as "Riverdale Farm" Apparently he wasn't married by the time the book was written. Don't know if married after that?

CHILD 2 - Cora WRIGHT-1889

Washington Co. In history pg 803-4in bio of Grant Wright.

She was born Washington Twp. born on same farm her resides. Don't know where she died.

During her lifetime she was recognized as a writer of attainment and contributed to many newspapers and magazines. She was a cultured writer and her death interrupted what promised to be a career in filed of literature.

Lenore. Lola Parker is a well-known teacher in the Salem high school, where she teaches domestic science. Neva Parker in October, 1913, married Benjamin F. Grimes, who is assisting in the management of Mr. Grimes' farms, and the other children are still at home, Clair and Lawrence still being in school.

Mr. Parker was reared a Presbyterian but is not now an active communicant of any of the churches. His wife is a member of the Methodist church and takes an active interest in the affairs of that body. Mr. Parker is a Republican and ever since coming to this county has given considerable attention to political affairs. Besides the term he served as county treasurer, he also served as treasurer of the Salem corporation, having been the first man elected to that office after the incorporation of the city. Mr. Parker is now living retired from the active labors of the farm, but still takes a warm interest in neighborhood affairs. He has a remarkable memory of the olden days and is a most entertaining conversationalist when engaged on such topics. He is often wont to narrate an incident of his youth, when three Indian "braves" marched into his father's home in Ohio one evening while he and his two sisters were eating supper and, calmly taking from them the food that had been set before them, made away with it, leaving the three children without supper. Mr. Parker is a man of the kindest character, particularly devoted to his family, and is held in the highest regard throughout the whole county.

GRANT F. WRIGHT.

Grant F. Wright, of Washington township, Washington county, Indiana, is of pioneer stock and is one of the excellent farmer of this section. He was born on July 3, 1868, on the farm where he now resides with his father, Philbird Marion Wright. Philbird Marion Wright was born in September 17, 1832, and is the youngest of three children born to Eli and Elizabeth (Bower) Wright. Eli Wright was born on September 5, 1795, and was the son of Philbird and Molly (Sears) Wright. Philbird Wright was born on March 29, 1768, and was the son of Richard Wright, who came to America from England in the early days. He had five sons; William, Philbird, Amos, Richard, Jr., and Hugh. Amos had five sons also, who were all ministers and noted for their ability. Their names were John, Peter, Joshua, Levi and Amos, Jr. John Wright was one of the fortifiers at Ft. Hill, and one of his children, Elvira, was born in the fort in 1813, and lived her entire life within sight of the fort. She had three brothers and one sister: David, Ransom, Jacob and Nancy. Jacob Wright preached the dedication sermon at Ft. Hill on October 1, 1860. Philbird Wright, son of Richard Wright, who was the first of his family to settle in America, married Molly Sears and they located on the farm once owned by Harry Denny but now in the possession of Henry Roberts. Molly (Sears) Wright was born on February 13, 1776. They were the parents of eleven children: Nancy, born on February 13, 1794; Eli, September 5, 1795; Evans, July 18, 1797; Sarah, September 14, 1799; Barbara, November, 1801; Elizabeth, November, 1803; Katherine, January 5, 1805; Delilah, born on February 10, 1800; John, Absalom, Celia (Ratts) and Polly. The mother of these children died on September 10, 1830 and her husband married Elizabeth Beck on November 15, 1832. Philbird Wright immigrated to Indiana from North Carolina about 1809.

Eli Wright and his wife, Elizabeth (Bower) Wright were the parents of three children: Adam H., who died in 1901; Caroline, wife of James Brewer, who died in 1898, and Philbird Marion. Eli Wright built and operated one of the first grist-mills in the township. He died of cholera on June 14, 1833, and his wife, in 1847. Philbird Marion Wright received his education in a log school house, located about two miles south of Salem, Indiana, and later became a school teacher. The school which he attended had a large fireplace and the seats were split logs. His first teacher was Prof. James G. May. Philbird Marion married Elizabeth Wiseman in 1863 and they became the parents of two children, Cora, who died in 1903 and Grant, who now resides with his father. The mother died in 1905. Philbird Marion Wright has lived on his present farm for more than sixty years. His wife was born on August 21, 1831, in Washington county, Indiana, and was the daughter of Jacob and Polly (Ratts) Wiseman. Her marriage was solemnized on May 28, 1863. Jacob Wiseman was a native of North Carolina and it was there that he was married to Mary Magdalene Ratts. He was a music teacher. They became the parents of these children: James, Henry, Newton, Mary, Elizabeth, Sarah, Amanda, Margaret, Malinda and several more who died in infancy.

Grant Wright was reared on the farm where he now lives with his father, Philbird M. Wright, and was educated in the township schools. Also in the graded school at Salem, Indiana, and in May's academy. He is an active Democrat and a member of the Church of Christ at Ft. Hill Chapel. The farm which he cultivates consists of two hundred and sixty-seven acres, fifty acres of which are in timber. This farm is known as "Riverside Farm" and is situated in an excellent location. Cora, the sister of Grant Wright, who was born on September 22, 1872, and who died on July 2, 1903. During her lifetime she was recognized as a writer of attainment and contributed to many newspapers and magazines. She was a cultured writer and her death interrupted what promised to be a career in field of literature.

JAMES WILLIAMS.

James Williams is of pioneer stock, his grandparents having moved to Indiana in 1812. He is the son of Thomas and Phoebe (Jones) Williams. Thomas Williams was a native of North Carolina and was born in 1805. He was the son of James and Jane (Laster) Williams. James Williams purchased government land, upon his arrival in this state, located in Monroe township, Washington county, and remained on this place until his death in 1851. He and his wife were the parents of four sons and two daughters. Thomas Williams, son of James Williams, was reared on the home farm, which he operated until his death. He and his wife were the parents of thirteen children, eleven of whom grew to maturity. Their names were: Mrs. Cleo Payne Wiley, deceased; Mrs. Jane Winslow; William, who died in the Civil War; Mrs. Elizabeth Calloway; Mrs. Sallie Calloway; Mrs. Phoebe Robertson, of Crothersville, Indiana; Mrs. Eliza Winslow, of Belle Plain, Iowa; Mrs. Emily Fleenor, living near Tampico, Jackson county, Indiana; James; Mrs. Mary Hinds, of South Salem, Indiana. Phoebe (Jones) Williams was born in 1812, in North Carolina, and was the daughter of Cadwallader and Chloe (Johnson) Jones. She was a small girl when her parents located in this state, selecting as their first place of residence a home in Monroe township, but later removing to Blue River, in Franklin township. This old farm now constitutes a portion of the county poor farm.

James Williams, son of Thomas Williams, was born on May 25, 1851, in Monroe township, Washington county, Indiana, and remained in that locality until 1873, at which time he purchased a farm located north of Canton, Indiana. This place consisted of one hundred acres. Seven years after the purchase of his first place, he removed to Gibson township, Washington county, and remained there for one year. He then returned to the farm near Canton and in 1883 purchased the present place, which is located

HUSBAND - Eli Wright

*Find A Grave internet site listed his birth and death dates and places. Pic of his grave marker looks like half in ground and one of stone fence at cemetery. Both buried in the Philburt Wright Cemetery. Eli died of Cholera and Elizabeth died of Tuberculosis. They had 5 children. and listed 11 siblings all with dates.
 Eli son of Philburt and Mary (Sears) Wright, grandson of Richard Wright Sr. was born in Rowan co. NC. Came with his parents to what is now Washington Co IN in 1809. Married in Clark Co. IN. 11 Feb 1819 to Elizabeth Bower. Eli and wife settled on a farm two miles south of Salem, In immediately after marriage. He built one of the first mills in Washington Twp. in about 1821, which was known as Wrights Old Water Mill. In 1840 a sash saw mill was added and it did a good business for many years. Eli was very successful in business and they (his family) were among the very best citizens of the community. Mrs Wright was a member of the church of christ at Blue River. (copy)

BIRTH: Info from Janet Pease, Dale Walker info. Also census records and Washington Co. In History pg 941.

MARRIAGE: Recorded Clark Co. IN (from CD #228-IN Marriages)

DEATH: Death date listed 1833 of cholera and prob. Washington Co. IN but not located burial place to date.

1800 Eli would be age 5 prob. with parents in Rowan Co. NC.

1810 not located parents but Eli age 15.

1820 Washington Co. IN Eli Wright 16/26-1 female-26/45 (this prob. wrong)

1830 Washington Co. IN Eli Wright m-to 5-1 30/40-1 f-to 5-1 30/40-1

Eli Wright had the first grist mill in the Township, Washington Co. IN.

Interent sites 2009 listed some info on Eli birth same as most, death date listed a 14 Jun 1873, buried Wright Cem, Washington Co. IN. 5 children listed between 1821-1832. Believe did say of cholera but date of 1873 so that will have to be checked out. that was wrong it was 1833.

WIFE - Elizabeth Bower

*Find A Grave internet site listed her birth and death dates and places. Pic of gravestone but can't read it and one of stone fence at cemetery. Parents: Adam Bowers and Julie Ann Harmon.
 Spouse: eli Wright 1795-1833. Listed 5 children with dates. (copy) been Margaret Brown, born and reared near Big Spring church, near the line between Pierce and Jackson townships.

Thomas B. Cauble spent his boyhood on the farm on Fort hill, and after the death of his father worked for five years at the carpenter's trade for his elder brother, William, who was a contractor. Adam G., the eldest of the family, was a farmer, and there was another brother, Peter Commdore. All of these brothers are dead. Peter C. was a carpenter and farmer, and there is still another brother, Robert Mitchell, living three miles southwest of Salem, while Samuel N., another brother, lives two miles further on in the same direction from Salem. There were two girls in the family. Mary Ann, deceased, was the wife of William Colglazier, while Margaret Annis is the widow of another William Colglazier, deceased, cousin of her sister's husband.

After the five years spent at the bench with his brother, Mr. Cauble married and engaged in farming, which occupation he followed for three or four years. He then formed a partnership with William Jameson and Emanuel Zink in the saw-mill business and for about twenty years they operated a portable saw-mill, moving it from one place to another. Thomas Cauble was regarded a master hand at putting a mill and saw in order.

Mr. Cauble had always been a Democrat in politics, and on September 20, 1893, he took office as treasurer of Washington county, having been elected to that office on the Democratic ticket in 1892. In 1894 he was defeated for re-election, but in 1896 was again victorious. Since closing his public career he has been actively engaged in his old trade of carpentering.

Thomas Benton Cauble was married, in 1866, to Ellen Virginia Shanks. She was a sister of Mansom Shanks, whose sketch gives the history of her ancestry and may be found elsewhere within the covers of this volume. To this union were born four children: Effie, wife of John C. Hinds; Anna C., wife of Bruce Wright; Jessie Frank, wife of Charles Paynter, living in Oklahoma, and Clyde, of New Albany. Mr. Cauble was married, secondly, in 1889, to Mary O. McCorry, born at Bridgeport, in Clark county, this state, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Whitson) McCorry. Her family was also a native of the same town, where for many years he was a merchant and farmer, remaining there until late in life, when he lived for a time at Sheridan, this state, and then came to the home of Mrs. Cauble, in Salem, where he died. John McCorry was a veteran of the Civil War, having been a member of the Fourth Indiana Cavalry, and was for a time a prisoner of war at Andersonville prison. By his second marriage Mr. Cauble has one son, Lee, now twenty-one years of age.

Mr. Cauble is regarded as one of the representative citizens of Washington county and has a host of friends. He holds fraternal affiliation with the Masons and in the work of the local society he takes a commendable interest.

ELI M. WRIGHT.

Eli M. Wright, farmer, of Washington county, Indiana, was born on the farm where he has since lived in Washington township, three miles southwest of Salem, July 7, 1849. He is a son of Adam H. and Elizabeth (Collier) Wright, the former also born on the same farm in 1824. Adam H. Wright was a brother of Philbird Marion Wright, and included in the sketch of the latter's life is a record of the earlier Wright families. The property on which Eli M. Wright makes his home, containing some one hundred and fifty-seven acres, has never been out of the possession of the Wright family. His grandfather entered it from the government and passed his remaining days on it, while his father's entire life was passed there, and Eli M. Wright bids fair to number out his days on the old home place, dear to the memory of the entire family.

Adam H. Wright gave most of the active years of his life to farming the home place and also engaged in saw-milling. During the latter forties he had a sash saw-mill operated by water power from Blue river and continued there until 1857, when he rented the mill and he and his brother, Marion, operated a portable saw-mill for two or three years. Elizabeth Collier, wife of Adam H. Wright, was born about eight miles west of Salem, in Vernon township, on the place where Lewis Carter resides at present. She was a daughter of James and Sarah (Lockwood) Collier, the former coming with his parents to this section from the present site of Lexington, Kentucky. The family settled in the western part of Washington county and Indians were numerous about them. There were also many wild animals and when the mother of the family milked the cows, young James had to stand over her with a rifle to drive away the panthers and other prowling beasts. There were no schools which the lad might attend and he got his education by studying at night in company with his mother while she operated her spinning wheel, all in the flickering light of the candle or tallow dip. He chose as his wife Sarah, or "Sally," Lockwood, who came here with her people from North Carolina.

Eli M. Wright is the eldest of a family of four children, the others being W. B., Mary C., widow of George Hageman, and a child who died in infancy. Adam Wright died in 1901 and his wife preceded him a few years, passing away in 1890.

Eli M. Wright has been engaged in farming the home place all the active years of his life, and assisted his father until the time of his death. In 1902 Mr. Wright built the house in which he lives on the southern part of the farm. This is a comfortable dwelling and both it and the land testify to the care and thriftiness of the owner. In the summer of 1892 Mr. Wright suffered a sunstroke and for four years he was compelled to give up his farm work. During those years he traded in live stock, but so far recovered as to be able to resume his duties as an agriculturist.

On February 28, 1908, Eli M. Wright married Stella Spaulding, born about two miles south of her present home, a daughter of Silas and Celia (Simpson) Spaulding. Silas Spaulding was born on March 27, 1838, in Washington township, south of Salem. He is a son of Landrum and Elizabeth (Jackson) Spaulding, the former of whom came to this section from Kentucky when a young man, while Elizabeth Jackson was brought here from Virginia by her parents. Landrum Spaulding was a farmer most of his life, but he was a shoemaker by trade and in those days all shoes were made to order.

Silas Spaulding has lived all his life in Washington county, engaged in farming for many years. He retired from the active duties of life some time ago and now resides on a small farm of twenty-five and one-half acres in the northern part of Pierce township. Silas Spaulding was married on May 10, 1861, to Celia Simpson, born in Washington county, a daughter of Obadiah and Cynthia (Nolan) Simpson, both of whom were born in North Carolina, where they married and soon afterward came to this county, locating in the western part of Pierce township, where they passed their remaining days and both lie buried in the Wilson graveyard near their old home. Silas Spaulding and wife are the parents of two sons and two daughters, the eldest of the family being Stella Florence, wife of the subject of this sketch; George B. McClellan, of Salem; Henry F. Franklin, also of Salem, and Melissa Aldora, wife of Frank Wingler, living near her father's home. Silas Spaulding was a member of Company C, Fifty-eighth Regiment, Indiana Volunteer Infantry, and served throughout the Civil War. He is a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, at Salem. Mr. Spaulding is a Democrat, but never aspired to office.

FRANCIS MARION TASH.

Francis Marion Tash, an extensive farmer of Polk township, Washington county, where he owns five hundred acres of land, was born near Old Pekin, March 7, 1850, the son of John, Jr., and Anna (Bixler) Tash. John Tash, Jr., born on the same farm as his son, October 30, 1821, the son of John Tash, Sr., and Sarah (Stanley) Tash, spent his entire life in agricultural pursuits on the farm of his birth.

John Tash, Sr., who with his wife and children, removed from North Carolina and settled on land in Polk township, about 1815, spent the remainder of his life in that township, passing away in 1850 and his wife, Sarah (Stanley) Tash, surviving her husband twenty-seven years.

By his marriage to Anna Bixler, daughter of Christian Bixler, four children were born to John Tash, Jr., namely: Emily Jane, Francis Marion, Lizzie and Mary. Upon the death of his first wife, Mr. Tash was then united in marriage to Lizzie Buchanan, to which union one child, Bertha, was born. Subsequently, Mr. Tash was married to Jane Hamilton.

Francis Marion Tash, after reaching manly estate, engaged in farming, which occupation he has consistently followed ever since. On his farms comprising in all about five hundred acres, he engages in general stock raising and general farming, besides dealing in horses and mules.

In 1875 Francis Marion Tash was united in marriage to Lucy Ann Baylor, who was born in Floyd county, Indiana, the daughter of Christian and Catherine (Sislow) Baylor, and to which union there were born two children, Etta and Anna. Etta died at the age of eighteen years and Anna, who married Edwin Bellews, lives at Lafayette and has one son, Lloyd. Upon the death of his first wife, Mr. Tash was married, in December, 1881, to Laura Rodman, who was born on November 25, 1851, the daughter of Jasper and Sarah (Jones) Rodman, the former a native of Washington county, who lived near South Boston, son of Hugh and Elizabeth Rodman, and the latter the daughter of Cadwallader and Chloe (Johnson) Jones. To Mr. Tash's second marriage two children have been born, namely: Mary, the wife of Edwin Rodman, of Polk township, and the mother of one daughter, Edna Gale, and John J., who lives at home with his parents, is a graduate of the Danville Normal School and is now a teacher in the district school.

Mr. and Mrs. Tash are devoted members of the Christian church at

Eli Wright

Birth: Jun. 27, 1827

Death: Aug. 10, 1913

Eli Wright was born 27 Jun 1827 in Washington County, Indiana. He was united in marriage to Salome Carolyn Hall on 4 Feb 1858 in Lawrence County Indiana. She was born 21 Oct 1837.

He was a miller by trade, having obtained his education by subscription school. They had five children of their own and raised a foster child. They were: Hugh Wright, Ellis Wright and James Wright, the latter who lived in Oklahoma. Mary Wright was born 10 Dec 1866 north of Hindsboro. She was married to William Jasper Douglas at Tuscola on April 30, 1890.

Laura Wright was born 24 Feb 1869 north of Hindsboro. She married Frank Jeffers on 27 Dec 1893. She was very active in the Hindsboro Christian Church. She was united with the church during a meeting held by Prof. W. F. Black in 1886. She organized the Cradle Roll at the church. She died 25 Apr 1927, and is buried at the Van Voorhis Cemetery.

Clara, their foster child, married Fred Helm of Tuscola. They lived near Russellville, Indiana. Eli died 10 Aug 1913 and Salome on 28 Jan 1923. Both are buried in the VanVoorhis Cemetery.

Co History has three pages of info on Evans, his parents, grandparents and wifes family. He was born on the site of his present home, 4 1/2 miles south of Salem. Said Evans was one of six children, Sarah Ann, Eli, Peter, Joseph, and Emanuel. His home has always been the farm of his nativity and his principal schooling was obtained at Eikosi Academy after which he taught school both before and after his marriage. In the fall of 1870 while attending Eikosi Academy, Evans was elected county surveyor, an office which he held until 1874. He has also been elected to the office of township trustee, from 1884 to 1888. Although a Democrat he was twice elected in a Republican twp. He is now living on his splendid farm of 475 acres. road supervisor, he is conceded to be a man of influence and value to his party in political affairs. In fraternal life, Mr. Williams is a well-known member of the Independent Order of Red Men, at Salem, having been a loyal member of this organization for about fifteen years. Mr. Williams attends the Methodist Episcopal church at West Point, a congregation of which Mrs. Williams is an active member and worker. John A. Williams and his family are among the highly respected and esteemed people of the township and county, their unselfish life and devotion to the interests of others having won for them a host of friends.

→ EVANS H. WRIGHT.

The following is a brief record of the life of Evans H. Wright, one of the prominent and prosperous farmers of this township. Mr. Wright was born on January 6, 1845, on the site of his present home, four and one-half miles south of Salem, and is the son of Evins and Nancy (Hinds) Wright.

Philbird and Molly (Sears) Wright, paternal grandparents of Evans H. Wright, came from North Carolina in 1808 and after living for a short time in Clark county, Indiana, moved to this county, locating in the southern section of Washington township, where they entered government land. They became the parents of eleven children, including Nancy, Eli and Evins, the latter of whom was born in Rowan county, North Carolina, in the year 1797. Evins Wright was twelve years old when his family came here, and with them he lived until his marriage, when he moved to the adjoining farm, the present home of Mr. Schocke. He later bought the farm on which his son, Evans, now lives. Besides his agricultural interests, he built and operated a water-power mill for grist and a saw-mill. He was a Democrat, casting his first vote for Andrew Jackson in 1828, and when his son, Evans, was a boy, served as county commissioner.

One of the early recollections of Evans H. Wright is the preparing of breakfast at the request of Morgan's raiders, who crossed his father's farm. His mother was born in 1805. Evans H. Wright is one of six children, the others being Sarah Ann, Eli, Peter, Joseph and Emanuel. Their mother passed away on December 14, 1870, and the father died at the home of his son, Evans, on September 5, 1895.

Evans Wright's home has always been the farm of his nativity, and his principal schooling was obtained at Eikosi Academy, after which he taught school both before and after his marriage, which occurred on March 9, 1871. The bride was Anna Clark Shanks, a native of Pierce township. To this union were born six children. Ollie S., the eldest, is a civil engineer for the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad. Joseph B., who married Elizabeth Cavanaugh, has three children, Harry, Ralph and Robert, and lives on the farm of his Grandfather Shank, in the northwest section of Pierce township. Milo B., the husband of Alice Sizemore, resides at Buffalo Junction. They are the parents of two daughters, Elsie and Ruth. Elsie, who is the wife of Clifford Schocke, lives in Pierce township. Her husband is attending the theological department of Transylvania University, at Lexington, Kentucky. They are the parents of a daughter, Mary Anna. Erasmus Evans is engaged in farming with his father on the latter's land. He and his wife, who was formerly Eupha Mitchell, have two children, Arline and Roger. Jennie is living at home.

Mrs. Wright Anna (Shanks) is of a well known family of this county. Her mother was Joanna Brewer, and her father, Erasmus W. Shanks, born at Charleston, Indiana, January 8, 1824, was the son of William and Hannah (Cravens) Shanks, who came from Virginia. The latter was born twelve miles from Harrisonburg, and was a daughter of William and Jane (Harrison) Cravens. Jane Harrison was a cousin of William Henry Harrison, former President of the United States.

William Shanks, who was born on May 12, 1791, at Bototourt county, Virginia, and his wife, came to Charleston, Clark county, in 1822, remaining there for two years, when they located on Blue river, in this county, west of Farrabee Station, where, after a useful life, they died. As a Methodist preacher, Mr. Shanks rode the Salem circuit until poor health forced him to become a local preacher. He was at one time a member of the Indiana Legislature, including a term as state senator. He was a man of remarkable self-possession, of culture, of uniform vigor of thought and clearness of expression, and was highly honored by this community: A power in the church, his ministerial associates never looked to him in vain for counsel. He died on May 20, 1863. His wife's father, also a minister, preached in the Shenandoah valley. He liberated his slaves and came to Indiana, where he and his wife lived with their daughter, Hannah, until their death.

Erasmus W. Shanks, who was a farmer here all of his life, was in the Legislature before the Civil War, and in the seventies was a member of the state Senate. He owned three hundred and seventy-one acres of land, this comprising the farm on which Joseph Wright now lives. His wife, who was born in the southern part of Washington township, was a daughter of John and Elizabeth (Cooley) Brewer, whose record is included in the sketch of J. E. Brewer, presented elsewhere in this volume. The children born to this couple were Anna C., Ellen V., Charles F., Manson C., Mary E., Cassie B. and Hannah Evaline. Erasmus W. Shanks was born on January 8, 1824, and died in March, 1902. His wife, who was born on October 25, 1824, died in January, 1909.

In the fall of 1870, while attending Eikosi Academy, Evans H. Wright was elected county surveyor, an office which he held until 1874. He has also been elected to the office of township trustee, filling this position from 1884 until 1888. His election and re-election was due to his rigid adherence to duty. Although a Democrat, he was twice elected in a Republican township. He is now living on his splendid farm of four hundred and seventy-five acres. Evans H. Wright is of the honest, straightforward type of citizens who always wins esteem and confidence, and for this reason he is looked upon as a leader in the community in which he lives.

DAWSON LYON PURKHISER.

Dawson Lyon Purkhiser, one of the best known and one of the most successful of the farmers and dairymen of Howard township, Washington county, Indiana, was born in Howard township on August 31, 1851, the son of William and Elizabeth (Colglazier) Purkhiser, natives of Washington county, the former born on January 7, 1816, the latter on February 7, 1815. William Purkhiser was the son of Christopher Purkhiser and wife, the former a native of North Carolina, who came to Indiana, about 1813, and settled on a farm in Howard township, where he lived the remainder of his life as a general farmer. Christopher Purkhiser and wife were the parents of six children, of whom William, father of the subject of this sketch, was the first born.

William Purkhiser grew to maturity on the home farm, and following his marriage moved to a farm of two hundred and forty acres of land in Howard township, a place which Mr. Purkhiser cultivated as a farmer until late in life, when he disposed of all his land with the exception of sixty acres, on which he spent his last days. William Purkhiser, on November 4, 1837, was married to Elizabeth Colglazier, and to this marriage were born five children, John, Susan, William, Dawson and Harriet. William Mitchell was the son of Samuel H. Mitchell, a record of whose family is presented on another page of this volume. Robert Herrod Mitchell was a life-long farmer, cultivating the farm of his nativity for his entire life. Robert Herrod and Eliza J. Mitchell were prominent members of the Fort Hill Christian church, as well as being prominent in the various activities of their community. Robert Herrod Mitchell died on October 10, 1887; his wife died on December 18, of the same year.

Willis Carr, the maternal grandfather of Nettie (Mitchell) Winslow, was born in the western part of Washington county, August 4, 1821, of Irish descent, and when four years of age, with his parents, settled on a farm near Salem, where they lived for some time and then moved to the town of Canton, where Mr. Carr engaged in the occupation of a wagon-maker, later operating a saw-mill and a grist-mill, afterward returning to his former business as a wagon-maker. Willis Carr died on March 17, 1882, survived by his wife, who died on December 27, 1893.

Albert Winslow is not only successfully engaged in agricultural life at "Clover Lawn Farm," his beautiful rural home, but he has found time and the inclination to serve his community in public office and to lend his aid and influence to measures for the public good. As treasurer of the Canton Canning Company for ten years, and as a private citizen of public spirit and unselfish interest in the community he has demonstrated his value to Franklin township and Washington county.

GEORGE HINDS.

George Hinds, successful farmer and dairyman, and well-known citizen of Washington township, Washington county, Indiana, was born at Hindsboro, Douglas county, Illinois, December 15, 1873, the son of James Pleasant and Sarah Eliza (Fry) Hinds, whose biographical sketch is presented elsewhere in this volume.

George Hinds was brought by his parents to Washington county when he was about five years of age, and after his education in the public schools of Washington township, worked on the farm of his father, a place located about four miles southeast of Salem, until twenty-one years of age, when George Hinds was married. Later, in 1901, Mr. Hinds moved to Oklahoma and secured a farm which he cultivated for six years and then returned to Indiana, where he purchased a farm near Gosport, in Owen county, a place which Mr. Hinds made his home, as a farmer, for three years. During the year 1910, George Hinds came to Washington county and bought a farm of one hundred and seventeen acres, in Washington township, a farm where this progressive farmer is now engaged in general farming and in the dairy business, the herd of cattle supplying the trade of Mr. Hinds being one of the best to be found in the community.

On October 15, 1897, George Hinds was married to Zabena Coots, who was born in Washington county, the daughter of Richard and Jane (Beasley) Coots, who live at Orleans, in Orange county, Indiana. For the marriage of George and Valeria Hinds has been born one child, Floyd.

Mr. Hinds, his wife and his son are active members of the Church of Christ, at Canton, in Washington township, taking an interested part in the work and worship of this congregation. In politics, George Hinds is an ardent and active Democrat, taking an influential part in the political affairs of the county, although he has not aspired to public office, preferring to serve in the ranks of his party.

JOSEPH B. WRIGHT.

In a section of the state like Washington county where the industry of farming is in a high state of development, a man who has attained a place of prominence in this field of endeavor deserves more than passing recognition in the community in which he lives. Such a man is Joseph B. Wright, who by perseverance and habits of industry has built up one of the best improved farms in the county. On the 10th of May, 1877, the subject of this sketch was born on the original homestead farm of his parents, Evans H. and Anna (Shanks) Wright. A sketch of the life of Evans H. Wright, one of the pioneer residents of this county, appears on another page of this volume.

From childhood Joseph Wright was taught to assume the duties of farm life. He spent his boyhood days on the homestead and after his marriage took up his residence on the farm where he now resides. The farm consists of three hundred and seventy-one acres and was owned for a time by the subject of this sketch and his brother, O. S. Wright until the former bought out his brother's share and assumed full control of the land, most of which is in an excellent state of cultivation. Mr. Wright devotes most of his time to the interests of general farming and stock raising, and keeps from a hundred to a hundred and fifty hogs. The activities of the farm are carried on on a thoroughly modern and scientific basis. Mr. Wright has always been a close student of science and specialized in that branch of study in Borden College, from which he was graduated in June, 1896.

On the 25th of November, 1900, the marriage of Joseph B. Wright and Mary Elizabeth Cavanaugh, a native of Jefferson township and the daughter of James and Lucy (Reynolds) Cavanaugh, took place. An account of the life of Thomas Cavanaugh appears elsewhere in this volume. The following children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Wright: Harry M., Ralph C. and Robert L. Mr. Wright is affiliated with no fraternal organizations and has never had a desire to hold a political office, although he takes an active interest in all local elections especially when the interests of the Democratic party are foremost. On questions of religion he is a man of broad mind and judgment but has never assumed membership in any of the churches of his community. Mrs. Wright is a devout Catholic and manifests a true interest in the affairs of her church.

As a man who has worked for the welfare of the community in which he resides, Joseph B. Wright is well known for his unselfish endeavors. He is considered an authority on matters pertaining to agriculture and possesses a personality that has won for him a wide popularity in his native county.

The readers of this History are indebted to Miss Lulie Davis, Secretary and Treasurer of the Washington County Historical Society, Salem, Indiana. She has so ably sought out all this information and accurately compiled this extensive index for the convenience of those who are interested in better acquainting themselves with early American folklore.

HUSBAND - Peter Zink

*Find A Grave internet site listed his birth and death dates and places. Pic of huge spiral grave marker with wives name and his on each side. Father: Daniel Zink 1767-1842 (name was Philip in his estate record). Spouses: Elizabeth Brainer 1794-1815 and Sarah Wright 1799-1894. 2nd wife had 10 children who he listed with dates. Also 5 siblings also with dates. Long story about his life also. He also said he had 14 children. Maybe had some with first wife? Said he md 8 Jan 1826 to Sallie, daughter of Philbred Wright. (she is still living). So who were the children born before 1826 when first wife died 1815. (some of this info seems to be wrong-GLT)

Pioneer Pickings No.84, The Salem Democrat (Salem, IN) 17 Jan 1877 (now I question the paper dated 1877 and his death date was 1884 (age 90). Peter Zink is another old landmark left on shores of time, so to speak, who is yet among us. Who does not know Uncle Peter Zink? The oldest settlers know him well, those who have come on the stage of existence and who are now from 50 to 60 years old, recollect him from their earliest days. Those who range about 25 to 50 years of age, know him as Uncle Peter Zink, and so on down to the rising generation. A sober, hardworking economical industrious manm has been Peter Zink, and although his head is covered by the frosts of more then 4 score winters, yet his walk is as erect, his carriage as perfect and his jocund laugh as hearty as any of 40 or 50 years of age. Peter Zink was born in Washington Co. VA; that State which prides herself on; the mother of the States and Statesmen. He was aborn near Abingdon, on the 23rd day April 1794 and consequently he was 82 years of age on the 23rd day of April last. His fathers name was Daniel Zink and he and John Fleenor and Abram Fleener

Notes HUSBAND - Peter Zink (Continued) use to be neighbors in old Virginia. His mothers name was Betsey Shelly. His father and mothers father were of the old Revolutionary stock and knew what it ws to suffer and dare for liberty, What it was to toil for the right to govern one's self, so to speak. They knew what it was to suffer and dare for liberty, what it was to aid and assist in throwing off a kingly yoke. Uncle Peter, true to the traditions of his father, embraced the Democratic faith and has steadily trodden therein, and is not ashamed to own that it is his political faith in the broadest extent, and that he expects to die by it. In 1806 his father and family removed to Jefferson Co. KY, whwere they resided and tilled a farm until 1814. then they moved tothis county and settled where Uncle Peter now lives. Peter was an own cousin to John Zink who was shot at the time of the Pigeon Roost Massacre and whose dust reposes on the farm of Jephtha Morris. Uncle Peter, like all good boys who get beyond the age of 30, got married on the 8th of Jan 1826, it was the anniversary of the bank of New Orleans; and we judge that is one reason he has no Republicvan political offspring, for they are all off shoots of Old hickory. He married Sallie, the daughter of Philbred Wright. She is living yet, hale and hearty and the mother of 14 children, none of whom are now living. One son Daniel, died in the army during the war of the rebellion. Peter Zink has lived in the same place nearly all his life, a pattern of economy and honesty. He never had any lawsuits, but goes on in the even tenor of his way, without let or hinderance by anybody. We saw him at the last elections, and he was as gay and cherrful as ever. Husband	Ransom Johnson
Wife	Barbara Wright
Notes	WIFE - Barbara Wright (Continued) As best we can be determined, Barbara was born about Aug 1801, in Rowan Co. Nc. based strickly on birth of first child, Warren in 1822, its believed Barbara md Ransom Johnson about late 1821 or early 1822, thought no marriage document has been found. Barbara died closer to late 1832 in Washington Co. IN as her husband Ransom Johnson married a Barbara Copple in Jan 1833. According to "History of Lawrence , Orange and Washington counties Ind from the earliest time to the present together were interesting biographical sketches, reminiscences, notes, etc." and published in 1884 by Goodspeed Bros & on page 894 written about Barbara and Ransom's son Nelson - both parents died whe he was very young. Given the close proximity of the datew, it is possible that Barbara died either during childbirth of Ransom, Jr in Aug 1832 or shortly thereafter. http://cdm15078.contentdm.ocic.org/cdm/ref/collection/p1819coll6/24006-page894 It appears Ransom and Barbara had 7 children in the short 10 years they were married. (Copy) Someone had listed George and Marty as their children but no dates. So not sure about them. BIRTH: Census records and Janet Pease. MARRIAGE: Not located to date. DEATH: Not located/checked to date. Internet site 2009 listed death date as June 1883, birth date as Aug 1801, no other info.Death actually 1833 before husband Ransom md Barbara Copple in Jan 1833. Ransom died 1838 according to his Find A Grave site and says he md Barbara Wright 1801-1833 and Barbara ? Johnson 1800-1883 1810 not located parents to date, Barbara age 9 if birth date right. 1820 no record of mg so maybe still with parents. Age 19. 1830 on not checked to date. Washington County
Indiana, USA

Early information for Barbara Wright Johnson - daughter of Philbert Wright and Mary Molly Sears - is sparse; however, much can be gained on her few later years as follows:

As best as can be determined, Barbara was born about Aug., 1801 in Rowan County, North Carolina. Based strictly on birth of first child, Warren in 1822, it's believed Barbara Wright married Ransom Johnson about late 1821 or early 1822- though no marriage document has been found.

Barbara Wright Johnson died closer to late 1832 in Washington County, Indiana - as her husband Ransom Johnson married a Barbara Copple in January 1833.

According to "History of Lawrence Orange and Washington counties Indiana from the earliest time to the present together with interesting biographical sketches, reminiscences, notes, etc." and published in 1884 by Goodspeed Bros. & Co. Publishing [found at <http://cdm15078.contentdm.oclc.org/cdm/ref/collection/p1819coll6/id/24006> - page 894] written about Barbara and Ransom's son, Nelson - both parents died when he was very young. Given the close proximity of the dates, it is possible that Barbara died either during childbirth of Ransom, Jr. in August 1832 or shortly thereafter.

In all, Ransom and Barbara appear to have had 7 children in the 10 short years they were married -

Warren Johnson 1822-1861
Adalade Johnson 1823-1862
Nelson Johnson 1824-1902
Sarah Jane Johnson 1826-1861
John W Johnson 1826-1904
Mary Ann Johnson 1830-1879

Stephens father moved to Orange Co. and he went with him and remained there until 1900 when he became a commercial traveler. He was on the road for 3 years then came to Pekin and erected a building into which he put a stock of drugs and sundries. He became a well known Pharmacist in Pekin after that. Pekin at that time was a small town of not more then 20 voters within its limits and his store which is now in the center of town was on the outskirts then. By diligent home study he was able to pass a rigid examination for registered Pharmacist and being one of 14 out of 85 applicants passed, received his licence. He has continued in the drug business and interested in other enterprises in Pekin as well.

He married 1908 and is a member of the ancient order of Free and Accepted Masons, and is one of the public-spirited men of his town. seven years. He bought forty acres of land in Polk township, a place which Mr. Motsinger improved and to which he added land at different times, until at the time of his death, he was the owner of eight hundred and forty acres of highly-cultivated land in Washington county. Mr. Motsinger was successfully engaged in general agricultural pursuits for many years; he was the owner of one of the most modern and beautiful homes of the community and was a man who gave of his time and means for the progress of the various interests of his community.

John R. Motsinger was married to Barbara Fry, who was born near Utica, Clark county, Indiana, and to this marriage were born six children, Louie, Edward K., William O., John F., Manson M. and Ellis H. John R. Motsinger and his wife were prominent members of the Primitive Baptist church, a denomination which is now actively supported by his children. Mrs. Motsinger died on November 18, 1911, mourned by a host of friends and fellow citizens, who honor the memory of this excellent man. Barbara, the wife of John R. Motsinger, died in October, 1912, having lived a good and useful life.

HARVEY C. SULLIVAN.

Harvey C. Sullivan, a prosperous merchant and leading citizen of Pekin, Washington county, Indiana, was born near the town of Salem, Indiana, on November 10, 1872, the son of James and Nancy (Simpson) Sullivan, a sketch of whose life will be found elsewhere in this volume.

Following his education in the common schools of Washington township, Washington county, Harvey C. Sullivan worked on the farm for a time and then, in 1896, Mr. Sullivan, in partnership with his brother, W. L. Sullivan, purchased a general merchandise store at Greenville, which they conducted in a most successful manner for about fourteen years, when, on March 26, 1909, a disastrous fire swept over the town of Greenville, destroying more than forty buildings and business houses, among which was the store of the Sullivan Brothers. Having lost all, Harvey C. Sullivan and his brother moved to the town of Pekin, and at this town they have established a modern store in their own building, where they are now engaged in the sale of general merchandise, together with conducting a line of huckster wagons. In addition to the mercantile business of Harvey C. Sullivan, he is also a dealer in poultry and farm provisions. In 1912 Harvey C. Sullivan purchased the interest of his brother, and since that time Harvey C.

has doubled the floor space of his business house, has added new lines to his stock and is now prosperously engaged in a business which amounts to the sum of sixty thousand dollars per year.

On October 3, 1902, Harvey C. Sullivan was married to Annis G. Templeton, who was born at Mooresville, Floyd county, Indiana, the daughter of Robert and Sarah (Ransom) Templeton, the former born near Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, the latter born at Bradford, Indiana. Robert Templeton was a school teacher in the public schools of various points in Indiana; his widow, who was the daughter of Montgomery and Annis (Marshall) Ransom, now lives in the state of Montana. To the marriage of Harvey C. and Annis G. Sullivan one son, James, has been born.

Harvey C. Sullivan is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church; his wife is a member of the Christian church. As a citizen and as a business man, Harvey C. Sullivan has demonstrated his use and value to the community, his honest dealings and unselfish life in public matters having won for him a host of admiring friends. Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan and their son, James, are among the esteemed people of Pekin and of Pierce township, Washington county.

STEPHEN NELSON MARKLAND.

Stephen Nelson Markland, well-known druggist of Pekin, Washington county, Indiana, and native of the county in question, was born in Pierce township, near the town of Pekin, on December 27, 1866, son of John B. and Delilah J. (Hinds) Markland, the latter also born in Pierce township, south of Salem, daughter of Samuel and Katie (Wright) Hinds. John B. Markland was also a native of Pierce township and was born on May 10, 1834, a son of Nelson and Elizabeth (Bush) Markland. Nelson was a son of Nathaniel and Susan (Boyer) Markland, the former a native of Essex county, England, who emigrated to America and located in Rowan county, North Carolina, where Nelson was born on April 7, 1810, the youngest of a family of ten children.

Nelson Markland was the first of the family to live in this locality, and in June of 1831 made the journey overland from his home in North Carolina in a wagon in company with his sister, Mrs. C. D. Green, and others, who became pioneer settlers of this county. Nelson Markland located in what is now Pierce township, where he spent his remaining days engaged in farming. He married Elizabeth Bush, of this county, who had come with her parents from their home in Pennsylvania, their wedding taking place on August 8, 1833. Nelson Markland was known as one of the most progressive farmers and stock raisers of his time and was a public-spirited man.

John B. Markland, eldest of the family of ten children of Nelson Markland, was reared in his native township of Pierce, where he remained until the year 1893, when he moved to Orange county, this state, where he already owned a farm of some three hundred and twenty acres. He has continued to reside there with his youngest daughter, Mrs. F. H. Turner, their home being at Lost River, near Orleans.

Stephen Nelson Markland is one of a family of six children, the eldest being Laura May, wife of J. H. Graves, of Pekin. Frank H., the second child of the family, died in 1893, at the age of thirty years. Stephen N. is the third child of the family and one of twins, a sister named Fannie having been born at the same time. When both babies were fully dressed, wrapped in a little shawl and the little human bundle put on steelyards, babies, clothes and all weighed only five pounds, and Stephen was the smaller child. The little girl died when twenty-eight days old, and the weather being very cold, the tiny body was kept for ten days in a bureau drawer awaiting the death of her twin brother, but young Stephen showed a strong degree of stubbornness in his fight with death and won out, and he says he has never outgrown the quality so early developed. At any rate, he was spared and grew into strong and robust manhood. The fifth child of the family is Mary E., wife of Silas G. Martin, who lives at Orleans on his father's farm. Lulu Estelle is the youngest of the family and the wife of F. H. Turner, living at Lost River with her father.

Stephen N. spent his boyhood in Pierce township and because of his frail physique in childhood, did not enter school until fourteen years of age and then progressed so rapidly in his studies that by the time he was eighteen years old he held a county license to teach. He attended Eikosi Academy and also DePauw College in New Albany, and within a month or two of graduation in the latter school he was forced to abandon his studies because of the critical condition of health he had brought about by overwork at his books. When Stephen's father went to Orange county for residence, he went with him and remained there until about 1900, when he became a commercial traveler. He was on the road for three years and then came to Pekin and erected a building, into which he put a stock of drugs and sundries. At that time Pekin was but a small town with not more than twenty voters within its limits, and his store, which is now in the center of the town, was based on the outskirts. By diligent home study, Mr. Markland was able to pass a very rigid examination for registered pharmacist, being one of four-teen out of eighty-five applicants who passed. He has continued in the drug business since first coming here and is also interested in other enterprises in Pekin.

In 1908 Mr. Markland was united in marriage with Zanna Chastain, born in Vernon township, of this county, daughter of Lafayette Chastain, a sketch of whose career will be found elsewhere within this volume. Mr. and Mrs. Markland are the parents of two children, Phyllis Evelyn and Frankie May. Mr. Markland is a member of the ancient order of Free and Accepted Masons, and is one of the public-spirited men of his town. He also possesses musical ability and has appeared as cornet soloist many times, playing as triple tongue soloist.

ROBERT J. MULL.

Robert J. Mull, well-known citizen of Washington county, Indiana, retired farmer and merchant of South Boston, was born in this county, May 27, 1846, about one mile northeast of the town where he now resides. He is a son of John and Lucinda (Davis) Mull, both born near the town of Salisbury, in Rowan county, North Carolina, the former in 1810 and the latter in 1813. Lucinda Davis was a daughter of Henry and Katherine Davis, and when the family came to this section from North Carolina, they located a little east of where South Boston now is and there the parents passed their remaining days. Lucinda Davis Mull lived to be eighty years of age, passing away in 1893.

John Mull was a son of Tobias and Susannah (Brown) Mull, who came here with their family about the year 1820 and located on the land where South Boston is now built. There were, of course, no roads at that time, nothing but the wilderness, and Tobias Mull doubtless obtained his land from the government, for he erected the small cabin of pioneer times and for many years he and his family endured the privations and hardships incidental to life in a new country. The family continued to live in Franklin township, and when John Mull grew to manhood he also obtained government land and passed his days in farming. He died when but fifty-six years of age, but had won a pleasing degree of worldly success in the span allotted to him.

Robert J. Mull was one of a family of eleven children, two of whom

JAMES PLEASANT HINDS

James Pleasant Hinds, second Henry, and son of the early Henry Hinds, was born on the farm near the town of New Market, Virginia, on March 24, 1837, the son of Daniel and Mary Ann Hinds, the former born in Pennsylvania county, Kentucky, in 1804, the latter in North Carolina, in 1800. James Hinds was the son of Daniel Hinds and wife, and was one of the sons of the family.

James Hinds, when a boy, was a Methodist, and was in the church and Sunday school of the town of New Market, Virginia, where he lived as a general farmer for the remainder of his life, until the death of his father, 1874. James Hinds was a member of the church, having been a member, and a leader in the church and in the life of the community. His church was a Methodist church, and he was a member of the church and a leader in the church and in the life of the community. He was a member of the church and a leader in the church and in the life of the community. He was a member of the church and a leader in the church and in the life of the community.

James Pleasant Hinds lived on the farm near the town of New Market, Virginia, until his death in 1890.

Sarah Jane Charles was a member of the Missionary Baptist church. Alexander Wilson died on December 17, 1901, and was buried in Bethel Chapel, Polk township. His wife died on September 21, 1899. Sarah Jane Charles, wife of Alexander Wilson, was the daughter of Leaven and America (Rodman) Charles. Mrs. Schleicher was one of three children, the others being John Dill, who lives on the home farm in Polk township, and Charles, residing on the adjoining place.

Clyde F. Schleicher, in November, 1914, was elected as township trustee on the Progressive ticket, beginning his term of office on January 2, 1915. He is an active, progressive Republican. He and his estimable wife are devout members of the Christian church, attending services at Morris Chapel. Mr. Schleicher has won respect by his quiet, forceful manner, his keen, well-informed mind, his progressive attitude toward politics and life and his rugged honesty and habitual sincerity.

JAMES PLEASANT HINDS.

James Pleasant Hinds, retired farmer and one of the widely-known and highly-respected citizens of Washington township, Washington county, Indiana, was born near the Blue river, four miles south of Salem, Indiana, on March 25, 1837, the son of Samuel and Catherine (Wright) Hinds, the former born in Jessamine county, Kentucky, in 1803, the latter in Rowan county, North Carolina, in 1806. Samuel Hinds was the son of Israel Hinds and wife, probably natives of the state of New Jersey.

Samuel Hinds, when a boy, came to Washington county, Indiana, with his parents and located in Pierce township, where he lived until after the death of his father, Israel Hinds, and then Samuel Hinds became a farmer, renting a farm of two hundred and eleven acres adjoining the home place where he lived as a general farmer for the remainder of his days, dying in the month of October, 1879. Samuel Hinds was a prominent man of his time, having been a tax collector and a leader in the political and public life of his community. As a church man, Samuel Hinds occupied a position of influence and leadership in the Christian church of Pierce township. Samuel and Catherine Hinds were the parents of eight children: Mary Ann, Francis M., Philbird W., Elizabeth C., Delilah G., James P., John M. and Samuel P., five of whom are now living.

James Pleasant Hinds lived on the home farm until 1861, when, having married, he established a home on the Hinds homestead, where he lived as a farmer for one year and then moved to Clark county, Indiana, living there for one year, after which he moved to Douglas county, Illinois, in 1864, and with his brothers, Frank and Milton, together with a cousin, Eli Wright, each of whom bought farms, adjoining, they established a colony, a place which later became the town of Hindsboro, Illinois, a flourishing town of one thousand inhabitants. James Pleasant Hinds and his brothers and cousin were instrumental in securing the right of way for the old Midland railway, which was constructed across the state of Illinois in 1872, these men having given a sixty-foot right-of-way across their land, as well as giving every other town lot, as an inducement for the builders. In 1879 James Pleasant Hinds sold his land and property in Douglas county, Illinois, and returned to Pierce township, Washington county, Indiana, where he purchased two hundred and ten acres of land which he cultivated for twenty years. He then moved to a farm near Orleans, making his home on that place for four years, after which he became a resident of the town of Orleans, where he lived until 1910, and then bought his present home in Harristown, where James Pleasant Hinds now lives a retired life.

On September 5, 1861, James Pleasant Hinds was married to Sarah Eliza Fry, who was born in Clark county, Indiana, the daughter of John and Sarah (Swartz) Fry, prosperous farmers and active church workers of the Methodist Episcopal church in their community. To the marriage of James Pleasant and Sarah Hinds have been born the following children: John C., Charles S., George W., Horace, Louie (deceased), and one child who died in infancy. James Pleasant Hinds and his family are leading members and active workers of the Christian church in Orleans and in their various communities. In politics, Mr. Hinds is a Democrat.

ELLIS H. MOTSINGER.

Ellis H. Motsinger was born on July 10, 1885, on a farm in Polk township. Here he grew to manhood and received his education in the common schools of that section. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Motsinger, whose life history is presented on another page of this volume.

Ellis H. Motsinger lives on the old home place, where he owns two hundred acres of some of the best land in the township. The farm has been greatly improved and developed. The house has been remodeled and today

Walker Burton Rodman, Jr. a young man who at the time was under the influence, attacked Absalom Wright on February 3, 1864 as he was bending a rifle in town for repairs. Rodman wrenched the gun from Wright and struck the old man a heavy blow on the head. Wright was picked up in an insensible condition and died a few hours afterward. Rodman escaped and fled to Missouri and had 2 or 3 children. In April 1873 he was arrested in Missouri and brought back to Salem, Indiana to stand trial for murder. He was convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to 2 1/2 years in the State Prison in Jeffersonville, Indiana. His wife did housework to support their children while he was in prison. She also worked vigorously in getting him pardoned. He was pardoned by Governor Gray, after serving 8 years of his 2 1/2 year sentence. His two brothers, Walter, and John A. Zering went to Jeffersonville to talk to Gov. Gray in his behalf. Notes

HUSBAND - John Wright

*Find A Grave internet site listed his birth and death dates and places. Pic of their double grave marker but sarah's onl name there, rest underground it appears. Parents: Philburt Wright 1768-1855 and Mary Molly Sears 1776-1830. Spouse: Sara Souders 1814-1902. Listed 5 children with dates. 11 siblings with dates. John md Sarah Souders 29 Sep 1836 Washington Co. IN. No credible record has been found to indicate that John had a middle name. (copy)

BIRTH: Census records and Janet Pease.

MARRIAGE: Not checked/located to date.

DEATH: Not located/checked to date. Believe after 1860 if have right John. Internet site 2009 listed his death as 3 Aug 1879 and birth date 8 Feb 1817 Washington Co. IN., nothing else.
